

MAKE AND BREAK

Louise Snyders

Chapter 1

Koos de la Rey

I make and break. I make free the feet of those who wait on Me. I break all bonds of death. I break all chains of sin.

There are jackals and there are wolves. Which side will they choose? The one is cunning and the other one lacerates. There is not one who does not want to consume the other.

It was in the year 1900 when some of My servants stood up to serve me. Things were very bad during that time. People murdered each other and everywhere there were fires. But nowhere was there someone who stood up for Me. There was not a person who did not know about Me, but nowhere were there any mention of someone who was burning for Me. In those days there was not a single human who loved Me. Everyone was involved in a church organisation which changed people into animals. It was a time of war and suffering and there was only one prophet for Me. Churches dealt promiscuously with human souls. Be happy and rejoice, because that time has passed. Bonds of death encircled everyone. There was a certain man called Koos. Koos was My namesake, because My Name was written on his forehead. He was assisted by my prophet. My prophet gave him counsel. Koos de la Rey was a man of character. And I loved him very much. One night he galloped at a very high speed with his horse called Pronk. Pronk suddenly swerved to the left and gave him a massive bump against his head. Bewildered he jumped up and called for help. But there was nobody who could hear him. I answered him by sending My servant to him with the following message: "Go with 10 men on horseback to the Northwest and wait there on My Word!"

He went immediately and meticulously fulfilled My message. Therein lies the obedience – that a servant fulfils My Word.

On arrival they unsaddled and waited on My Word. Again I sent My servant to him with the following words: Erect a pillar for Me for the liberation of your nation. I will commemorate your nation in the next generations that will come, because they are My chosen ones!"

The pillar still stands today and can be seen at Migdol which means "Sheep tower".

My nation, I love you, but you do not commemorate Me. There is an insignificantly small remnant among you who seek My Presence. Take care to find Me, because I am the Alpha and the Omega.

Chapter 2

Paulus Toronto

It were the days when kings and statesmen were among the most important. Today sportsmen and stars are the most important. A circle of mockers had started a new thing. They sang with loud applause and dancing. Wild screaming sounded every night. Until a man stood up for Me. He stood up in the Name of YaHWeH of the heavens. His name was Paulus Toronto; a middle class man with barely enough to live. He was hated by the occupants of the city who committed adultery under every green tree. Paulus called on Me day and night to everyone's amazement. Day in and day out the screaming continued. Without failure he kept on praying. Until the day the sun stood still and the earth shook. For a while there was quiet and some even started to pray. After a while the noise continued. With a loud voice Paulus stood on the city square and called:

Come to me all of you, so that I can tell you something.” Curiously everyone flocked around him. Suddenly Paulus broke out in tears and astonished them with the following words: “First seek the kingdom of Yah, but you seek your own kingdom. Therefore you will all be banned to the stones of the earth where moth and rust destroys everything!” A certain group people took it to heart and were saved, but the greatest majority did not take any notice of him. Slowly he returned home heartbreakingly he started praying to Me. That night it started to rain and there was not a house that was not under water. But Paulus was a man of the highlands and therefore his house was not under water. Later that night there was a knock at his door. It was the people of the lowlands. He opened the door with the following words: “Go to your houses. What you need is already there!” The people turned around, embarrassed, because they wanted to find shelter with him, but My prophet was commanded to treat them sternly. While the people were on the way to their houses, a massive wind came up and gathered all the water like in a whirlpool and blew it away. This sight was frightening to see and many passed away and never stood up again. All those who developed a little faith in Me because of My prophet, were taken back to their houses where they found everything in order. Even the furniture was as if nothing happened. Everything stood just like before the flood. Fear, amazement and pain reigned. Pain due to the harm they had done to Me and My prophet. The pain was an overbearing pain that caused the heart to contract. They experienced the fear when they realised an Almighty God Whom they have challenged and so they have defied fate. In this way rest and peace came to a noisy city. Everyone was like a sea in commotion who came to a standstill by My raised hand, to whom everything and everyone must be obedient. Therefore I want to say to everyone: Look for Me while I can still be found. There will come days that nobody, who does not have Me in their hearts, will find Me. It will be a time of floods and raging currents. Be glad if you have already found Me, because you have found Everlasting Life.

Amen.

Chapter 3

Susanna Elizabeth Scheepers

It were the days of rejoicing after the Great Trek. Everyone was already established on their farms and there was a certain unity among the nation. It was the beginning of the Boer Nation of South Africa. Everyone was grateful for the piece of land which they have received after the hardship they had to endure on the long road. There was a certain woman with the names Susanna Elizabeth Scheepers. She was a courageous Boer-woman with a pure heart and a strong mind. She seeked Me daily in the quiet of nature under an old blue gum tree. Susanna was always up early and busy before the first cock would crow. She took her horse into the mountains daily, because she meant to find Me in the quiet and loneliness. Her longing for Me was great, because she had a happy childhood, because her parental home was God-fearing and full of My praise. I have saved them from immense dangers of which nobody can think because they themselves have not experienced it. The descendants of the trekkers have much to be thankful for. But back to Susanna.

One morning she rode her horse in the direction of the dense Magaliesberg, when a leopard jumped from behind onto her horse's flank. In her fear and despair she had only one thought and it was Me. She thought that she was going to enter into eternity and will finally meet Me, her Creator. Not totally against dying, but still humanly full of fear. Susanne shouted thoroughly to Me and raised her hands up to Me with the leopard still behind her on the horse who started to stumble. From the blue light a beam came which struck the leopard and it was lying on the ground as if dead. But the leopard still breathed and bewildered Susanna stood and wondered when it will jump up again. Her horse was wounded minimally and slowly she returned home with a song of praise in her heart, greater than before. On arrival at the house she told her family members what had happened.

Her eldest brother Daniel immediately went back to fetch the skin. When he got there, there was no sign of the leopard, but the fresh marks were still clearly visible. A certain time thereafter is was told of a leopard that was seen wanting to steal a sheep. The man who saw it, reported a leopard with three short stumps that tried to catch an easy prey. Needless to say they immediately knew that it was Susanna's leopard. The leopard struggled on for days until it reached Susanna's farm. There it collapsed one night on the front porch of their house. Susanna was carried away in the love for her Creator Who protected her so faithfully.

Therefore it is necessary to praise Me day and night. To love Me each day from the depth of your heart so that I can make the enemies a footrest to your feet.

Only your Creator. Always.

Amen

Chapter 4

My Word is there for My true servants

There are miracles and there are miracles. There are blessings and there are blessings.

Where I am, there is no fear, but you do not experience it as such. Therefore it is necessary to remind you time and again of incidents and occurrences where My name can once again be restored in your shaky minds. Even My servants doubt My words.

Things revealed to you are considered as cheap words that will never become true. Think about this in the times that come, because I will certainly not leave one word that I have said undone. You will see everything and in fear you will realise what mistake you have made to shrug off My words as meaningless. Those of you who took it to heart, will also be beside yourselves, because your God and Saviour is keeping His word. Therefore be glad if you are among those who believe My Word, because all the others will have to hang their heads in shame because they did not believe Me and My servants. Therefore be diligent workers on yourselves and cultivate love for Me in your hearts, then you will also start to believe, even if things do not happen immediately. Be warned – things will descend upon you sooner than you think and in your fear all My words will come back to you in the fierceness of My fire.

Your Creator and faithful Lord.

Amen

Chapter 5

Your Almighty Saviour loves you, therefore love Him as well

Things always happen for a reason. The one day it goes well and the other day it goes bad, but My hand is always in it. Therefore always be happy in your hearts, because there is nothing that saddens me as much as when one of My children is unhappy with the fate I have dealt him. Times ago an agreement was made with Me and through this certain things were determined which will happen to you and it cannot be changed. You sing and pray without joy in your heart and then expect Me to be satisfied with it. Me, your Creator, loves you and wishes you a happy life, but you experience it as punishment when I bring things on your path that must purify you and bring you nearer to Me. Therefore think about this when you again have to endure such a “terrible punishment.” I love you and want to give you everything, but you only give Me the breadcrumbs of your love. What I want is the fire of your hearts. Without fear you must approach Me and come and sit on My lap. With My Father Arms I want to embrace you and shower you with My love. Therefore think of My words of Redemption – and power will engulf you, the more you love Me. Stop arguing about insignificant things and love Me, because I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End and nothing that you disagree on can change it. What I want, is that you embrace each other in brotherly love, while you praise and glorify Me from the depths of your hearts, without diffidence you must spread My word of love to others who are still walking around with sour faces and black hearts. The end is so near that you will die if I should show it to you. So, be worthy as My faithful servants, and you will live while others around you will die. Be pleasing to My Father Heart without the one slandering the other because he does not want to accept your doctrine. Stop being clever and let My Father Wisdom take root and take over in you. Do not be a thorn in My eye which I will have to remove, because the removal will not harm me as much as it would harm you. Your Almighty Saviour loves you, therefore love Him also.

Your Saviour on the cross on Golgotha.

Amen

Chapter 6

Listen to My voice inside you

To those of you waiting to be reborn I just want to say: You are My chosen ones who are in the flesh on earth, but inside you My infinite Spirit is present which is holy and separate. Therefore do not mingle with everyone who appears friendly to you. Many are vipers, sent from hell with the full mission to rob you of all your Spirit. They will never be able to succeed if you do not allow them. That is to say, if you stay in Me, so that I can stay in you. The way to recognise vipers is to listen to My voice, your Father and Saviour who knows everybody. Many times you talk of a “vibe” that you detect when you talk to someone. They appear to be very friendly and nobody can point a finger at them, but I know their hearts and warn My children through My Spirit inside you. Therefore you must listen to Me and avoid that person, because I know who can still be saved. There are many people who still have a bad spirit present and with that I do not want to say that the person concerned is bad, but his life does not allow him to find his way to Me, because he allows evil spirits to tell him what to do. If you feel that somebody does not meet the standards to be a child of Mine, with complete surrender and with a lot of neighbourly love entrust that person to Me. I will then enfold that person with My power and might and save him from all the evil gathered around him. I will free him, so that he can recognize Me, his Saviour, Creator and Father and also come to love Me like he should. Therefore you must never think that everyone is lost who currently find themselves in evil. Rather think about it that it is one of My souls who is controlled by evil spirits and that it is they who are the vipers. Each prayer from the depth of your heart for your neighbour and brother is pleasing to Me and I will hasten to answer your prayer, because it is like incense before Me. Pray for each other in all love and rather keep the bad gossip far away from you. Your Creator Who loves you very much says these things to you.

Take notice of this!

Amen

Chapter 7

Form a strong bond with Me

Honour to the King of the centuries, the imperishable, unseen, sole, all-wise God, He is worthy of all honour and glory for all eternity. Amen. So My servant Paul has said it, centuries ago, to the whole world and to generations who live on the earth thousands of years after that. In My book of life there is no other person who has said it like My Paul. Therefore it is necessary each day to have a bond with Me in order to shower you with My Spirit, even if it is late at night, early in the morning or even noon in your life. My servants on earth are very much in need having a strong bond with Me in order to stay in connection with Me, because when you do not stay in Me, I can also not stay in you and then you are powerless and without hope. Be obedient to My voice inside you when I call you, even if it is in the middle of the night. My Spirit cannot work in you if I do not have your complete obedience and that includes the commandments of love. Be faithful to Me and I will be true to My word and you will be transformed by My power into a new human who is equal to Me in everything.

Amen, yes, amen.

Chapter 8

Distress call for neighbourly love

The one among you who is without sin can pick up the first stone to throw another person. This I have said years ago and I say it now again with emphasis: The one who is without sin, can pick up the first stone. You are so prone to accuse each other of things and the one cannot tolerate the other in love, but you would like to have your brothers tolerate you with love and patience, because you are “just a human”. From there the phenomenon that brothers hate each other and in immorality all sorts of things are done against Me, because the one cannot stand the other. Without you realising it, you are doing Me harm, instead of each other, by gossiping and speaking about each other. Do yourself a favour and look around you how much brotherly love there is among you and specifically among the so-called Israelites. They scold each other covertly and Sunday everyone is present again to come and to, so-called, serve Me. Is the serve that I seek not that you must serve each other in true neighbourly love and to honour Me through this? But you think that you do enough to bring food for each other and thereby you have done enough for each other for the rest of the week. Take a little notice of the need of your fellow-man and you will stand speechless over the poverty of your compatriots. All of them are not so privileged as you are and cannot afford everything that they need. Look at it and rather try to help than talk covertly and accuse people of things of which they are not guilty. I help you without hesitation and without hesitation you must help each other and stretch out a helping hand where you see that one is needed. Your Elohim and Creator commands you in the words of centuries ago that you must practise neighbourly love. Therefore do as I command and I will bless you to such an extent that you will be dumbfounded if you would know what I have prepared for you. Think about it, that I have humiliated Myself to come to the ash heap of the earth to extend My rescuing right hand to you and rescue you, despite your sin, because I knew that you were all just humans who once came forth from Me. If you would know your sin like I know it, you would hang your head in shame and in deep remorse beg Me for forgiveness and definitely forget about your neighbour's sin. Be faithful to Me in everything that you do and I will erase your sins like you erase your neighbour's sin against you. Therefore you must work hard on yourself so that you can inherit Me.

Your Father and Creator, always and for ever.

Amen

Chapter 9

Call to Me and profess Me!

There is need in every heart that seeks Me in his sorrow and therefore you must profess Me day and night, even if the night is very dark. Do not wait for Me to call you, call to Me all the time. And I will answer you, it does not matter if you are full of sin or not. Because without a Father you are nothing. And nobody can take you from My hand if you do not choose to go away by yourself. Come to Me in the warmth of your love and tell Me how you feel. I want to take all your sorrow on Me because I am your Creator and Saviour Who once suffered very heavily for you. You do not realise what I had to go through for you and therefore you will not understand a true Father Heart. True Love has laid down His life for His love which is His life. Therefore be quick to call Me and slow to seek comfort from a fellow-man and seek Me day and night. And I will give you the desires of your heart and you must fight for Me.

Amen

Chapter 10

Offer the extra mile to Me, by yourself

Why are your ears closed and your mouths open? And that while I Myself gave you command not to only be listeners, but also doers. You do not listen to what I have commanded you, but you choose to do your own thing. Many a time I have set an example for you, but you choose to follow your own example. Do not make it necessary for Me to come and cut down with My sickle before the harvest is ripe. All of you say that you love Me, but you are not willing to go the extra mile for Me. I do not want to ask for the extra mile. You must come and offer it by yourself. I, as your Saviour, offered Myself to you and endured the most terrible pains for you. Therefore I would like that you would come and offer yourself as living offerings to Me. This is something that each one must decide – if he wants to or not – and the choice is yours, but I just want to say that what you give, that will be given back to you one day in the manner in which you gave it. Therefore do not be sparing with your love and offerings, because an offering from love I will always accept and I will reward you in a way that you do not expect. Something active you have to do to yourself, or else you cannot be filled with My Spirit and it means that you will not become one with Me and how can you then reach rebirth on your own? Therefore do as I command you, because it means everlasting life in Me, your Elohim and Creator. Like a dragon who does not get up again, you must conquer your own self, because your own self can be compared to a dragon that consumes everything. Everything which comes in his way, he devours. Selfishness is a fruit of the own self and just look what selfishness can do. People will kill each other for a few rand and this just to satisfy the own self, because the body must be gratified in all respects. Therefore do not do what the snake children do, and do My will, then you will live and walk with Me without the own self, but with Me inside you, which means life.

Therefore do as I say to you, because I know why I command you to do this. If your spirit would be awake, you would have known already, but now you still sleep the death-sleep. Therefore awaken and live for all eternity.

Amen

Chapter 11

Seek My presence with a holy garment

Like a drunkard the earth staggers to fall and not stand up again. I have said it repeatedly to you: The time is running out and with what will I find you busy in time of need and death? Do not fear the tidings, because I am King over everything and the whole creation is obedient to Me. But fear the tidings if your heart is still far from Me and pray in the time of need and death and I, as your Creator and Saviour, will certainly save you, because I do not let one of My children get lost who calls Me in their hearts. But you who depend on yourself cannot expect any rescue. In a time of need and death only the calls of Mine will reach My ears and I will come to their aid and rescue them. They will become aware of My great Father Arms and calm and peace will take hold of them while all the others will run around like drunkards in their need and search for Me. I will be deaf to their cries for help and they will stagger and fall and never get up again. Those who will call to Me before the time of need and death will be saved and will stand up to eternal life, even if you give up your earthly life. Think about it in a time of peace and know: The time is running out. Seek Me with your whole heart and you will be saved when others die around you. Shall I speak and not keep My word? It is far from Me to do it. Never do I just speak empty words and all My words are true and will be fulfilled. Seek My presence with a holy garment and do not allow sin to make your garment dirty. Your Saviour and Creator is the one saying this to you. Think about this in the quiet of your heart and just focus on Me, your Father, who loves you very much. It sometimes sounds as if I am this cruel God, but I know why I do it and when you are united with Me, everything will become clear to you and you will praise Me with hearts exploding with love for Me. Trust Me, even if things are difficult. I am in control and stays in control, even if the world wants to make it look differently. Do not fear Satan, because I have conquered him centuries ago and he knows it. And with hate and anger he comes down on that which is Mine, because he thinks that he will conquer Me this way, but he cannot, because I am the Power Source. It does not matter what he wants to convey to everybody. Just trust Me and love Me. That is all I ask.

Amen

Chapter 12

Seek Me while I can still be found

You who want to sing a Zion's song to Me, can be grateful – I have brought My bread to the earth and without you being aware of it, I already came to build My temple in your midst. You are My true, living temples and without Me you are empty buildings which will cave in if the first rains would come. Build on Me, your most important foundation.

And wait on the fulfilment of My word, which will certainly not wait very long. There is nobody among you who does not need Me and you cause each other terrible harm by not staying in Me. You must live to the full for Me and this means that the world must be shut out, while I alone must have access to your heart.

Therefore love Me with your whole being and I will come and make My home with you and together we will conquer the world and there will be no pain and grief for you, because I carry it for you. You will be full of praise when you can see Me in fullness and the world will stand amazed because of the power that goes forth from you. You will be able to let the blind see and the deaf hear, because I give you the power and the authority to chase devils out. Without Me you can do nothing, therefore you must seek Me diligently in the quiet of your heart which is also your inner room. Go into your inner room regularly and look for Me there. I am there where I am welcome and nobody can take Me out of there.

No death, no need, no depth, and also no dip, and no darkness. Even if they lock you in the deepest of cellars, My light will shine through you and bring light to the dark world. No earthly light, which in itself is darkness, but My light which enlightens everything, even the deepest alley. Do not be afraid, because I am with you. I carry you and I feed you. I clothe you and take care of you, even in the worst famine I will protect and preserve those who are Mine, remember, starvation also brings the danger of attackers, but I will cherish you and hold you against My chest. Mine will experience no distress and with joy they will sail away with My rescue boats to the heavenly coast where they will rest softly against My chest. Seek Me while I can still be found and you will also rest against My chest and see peace without pain or grief. But you must seek Me without resting. Be awake and do not neglect to know Me, your Elohim and Creator, in everything. Be joyous and happy, the time is near that each sincere heart full of love and without haughtiness will see Me.

Amen

Chapter 13

Forget about all the earthly – because therein lies death

There is no one among you who does not need Me. This I have already said at a previous occasion and I cannot stipulate it enough. Be thankful to Me for all that you have and do not forget that it is Me who gives it to you. Live only for Me and you will receive – joy which you will not be able to handle now, because you are now far too weak to know what I have prepared for you. Seek Me. This I say again and again. It does not matter if you are perfect or not. Nobody is perfect, even if many of you think that you already are. Forget about all the earthly – because therein lies death. And therein lies the death of matter which cannot be conquered for everlasting times. Think about My words which I speak on this day and know – without Me you can do nothing. First ask Me before you do the smallest little thing. I will indicate to you what you must do and you will find full joy. Because in Me resides the full joy. Do not be vain seekers of worldly honour and glorification, because it is death – to be honoured by people. It brings haughtiness which is the weapon of the evil, through which he robs Me of thousands of souls. And in grief those souls will be separated from Me for eternities because I do not tolerate any impureness with Me.

Chapter 14

I am the Way, the Truth and the Life

There comes a time and you will now when it has come. The sea will change into blood and the moon will darken when I have left man to their own fate; when I withdraw Myself from the earth and her occupants. Only an insignificant remnant will remember My words and take it to heart and it will almost be too late. But still My rescuing hand will rescue those who ask for Me at the last minute. Do not be one of those who come too late to come and seek me, because you will see the salvation of the righteous and stay behind yourself. It will be a time when people's hearts will succumb and they will come and ask help from Me with empty hands and dirty hearts, but I will turn a deaf ear and only rescue those who have come to love Me in time and seek Me whole-heartedly. The bringer of death is nearby. If you would know, you would not carry on so carelessly. You would have hastened to gather at My feet and you would, cleansed by My blood, seek My presence. But you chase after worldly pleasure. It is the one festival after the other. No time for contemplation, because Mammon is calling louder than Me. You do not want to hear, even if you could, because pleasure deadens everything. The body, place of death, is more important and in dust you will sink away and songs of lamentation will rise up from the skeletons. Do not say that I have not warned you, it is almost too late, but the door is still open on a jar. Hasten yourself to the entrance. Those who do not know where the entrance is – just look at Me. I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. I will bring you in safety, while the earth sings a song of lamentation. I will carry you away in My arms and nobody will bother you there where I will take you. And fresh like a flower you will be My new generation who will serve Me and the whole creation will know that you did not forget Me, therefore I will come to rescue you. Nobody who calls on Me will be lost. Not even a hair will fall when I guard you. Therefore do not fear the snake and its spawn, because he is powerless. He is like a roaring lion waiting to devour and in his haste he will try to devour one of My children, but fast like an arrow from a bow I will step in between and give him the final blow. And I will wound him and throw him in the pool where he will have to sit for very long because he wanted to harm My child. He will roar with pain, because where I hit there will be an open wound which will not heal easily. And he will sit for an eternity and he must think about his sins – that he has lifted his hands to one of mine. Therefore it is better to seek Me, because all power and strength goes forth from Me and you are safe in My Father Arms. Be without doubt, you will live and will not die. So make your choice and come quickly, because the great killer is on his way. Your Father who is calling you is saying these important things to you.

Amen

Chapter 15

Stay away from the temptations of the world

The people who call on Me in their hearts have everything that they desire. No oppression or death can take them away from Me. I love you with the purest love imaginable. Not even My earthly life was bigger than My love for you. With a song in My heart I have carried My grief and I was prepared to descend into the deepest depths of death. You have nothing to fear, I have fulfilled everything and the snake called Satan shivers when he hears My Name. On the surface it seems as if he has won. It is only part of the illusion and this is something which he is very good at. He pretends things and catches people who lend him their ears in their ignorance. It is these idiots who will try to oppress you at every opportunity. You must treat them well in all love and know that revenge is Mine. Satan and his servants hide behind each bush and without you knowing it you are being watched. Every movement is watched carefully. Therefore you must be full of My praise all the time, because then he can do you no harm. But a slight transgression from your side gives them the opportunity to come down upon you in full wrath and then you will feel how you lose your power in Me. The call in your heart then becomes weaker and weaker until it is later extinguished completely. That is why I always say; watch and pray continuously, because you cannot see the evil ones around you. If you could, then you would not want to move a step away from My feet, because the evil ones are exceptionally repulsive and like a vampire seeking blood they seek your souls.

One way to get access to you is through worldly pleasure. Without thinking, everyone hastens themselves to the temptations of the world. DVD's, video's, magazines, public places, sports and many more are all places where these evil spirits are. If one of you goes to such a place, he immediately chooses one of you so that he can drink the fresh blood of one of Mine.

And drunk with joy they attack you more, until you later are shorn of all Spirit and I can do nothing because it is your choice where you go and what you do. Remember one thing very well: There where you go, I am with you, but if you visit the worldly places, you go in alone. I am not with you while you drink Mammon's drink and in your drunkenness you are alone and desolate. Everywhere where a spirit of acquiescence and joy reigns, I am not, only in joy looked for in Me, there I am. Therefore stay away from places where I am not to be found, because you will be sucked out without Me rescuing you.

Amen

Chapter 16

Do not sadden My Holy Spirit

Spirit is a term of which people know little and they do not realise that they came forth from spirit and will return to spirit. The earthly body is put together out of dust and My breath, which is My Spirit, I have blown into them. Therefore it is a transgression against My Spirit if someone lives in sin. Such a person does not realise that he saddens the Holy Spirit inside him. Then My Spirit pulls Himself back and therefore cannot be of any use to him. Man is inclined to project himself as righteous, but My Spirit inside him accuses him continuously. Therefore be glad if you continuously catch yourself that you are examining yourself, because it is My Spirit that has awakened inside you and it encourages you to improve. Many a human has smothered My Spirit inside him and therefore cannot improve anymore. Look at the people around you. Nobody wants to grant anybody else something and they do not even feel guilty if they have done wrong to their neighbour. Just too glad if nobody realises it and if someone should find it out, it will cause the biggest fight you have ever seen. That is why the courtrooms are so full. Nobody pays attention to the fact that the Voice on the inside, which we call conscience, has become quiet. It is one of the reasons for Me coming to visit the earth. Because My Voice is calling in vain again and again and nobody is answering anymore. Think about it and check carefully and listen if you can still hear My voice or do you think that you are righteous before Me? The human who is righteous before Me, is the one who comes to look for Me and confesses his sins to Me so that I can forgive him. Only then he is a righteous person; when I have washed him in My blood and he is pure through My blood.

Come and ask forgiveness for your sins constantly and I will show you mercy and pour My Spirit more over you. But nobody must ever think that he is righteous by himself, because only I make righteous. Therefore do not sadden My Spirit, so that I will not withdraw My Spirit from you and you descend into the everlasting pit.

All My love to My children who seek Me in all seriousness.

Chapter 17

No justification without Me. Humility and love

I am an everlasting God and he who seeks Me will find eternity. That is why you must seek Me every day in all seriousness without stopping and I will give you eternity. He who seeks Me will also find everything that he needs for life on earth and the life hereafter. For Me there is no one who is righteous, because the righteousness goes forth from Me. The human who justifies himself is without My consent a human who is presumptuous and then he is even more unjustified. He who seeks Me with his whole heart and soul will be cleansed by My blood and only then will he be justified. Always be glad because My blood frees. My blood has flowed on Golgotha and I was without power because My Father has left Me. But I became full of power when I was united with My Father again after My death. And therein lies the righteousness – that someone, through My blood, which flowed freely on Golgotha, became pure and was washed clean. But do not think that you are without sin, because you are still a human. And humans are matter, except My Spirit that is in them and their souls which has once gone forth from Me. Think about it - that I made an offering to you and you must also offer yourself to Me. Then it will be a pleasing offering before Me, which I cannot refuse. The offer that you must bring, is your heart full of love for Me and your fellow-man. Neighbourly love is highly appreciated because that is how you serve Me. And you must serve and not want to be served because therein lies the lust for power. And lust for power is a subdivision of haughtiness. And haughtiness is the fruit of evil. The evil of haughtiness surpasses everything, because from haughtiness flows lust for power, ambition and everything that harms the soul, and false puffery, because such a person would gladly like to be made an idol. He wants to be seen – to step on the foreground and have a say in everything. Therefore I cannot emphasize humility enough. Humility makes an angel of man on earth.

Without humility you get nowhere. That is – spiritually nowhere. Earthly you will get far without humility, but with Me you get nowhere without it. I was humble when I walked as a human on earth. Me, the Creator of the universe came to earth and lived among you people as fellow-man, without any haughtiness. Without any pretence I was here among you and it must serve as example to you, that The King of the centuries, everlasting like I am, was here in human form and pure like a child was I. No feigned manners to impress people. I am like I am and nobody can change it. I did not adapt to save people's feelings. Therefore I want you to be like you are – within My order and nobody besides Me must be your example, because someone else also has faults. Think about My sincerity, friendliness and the peace that I have brought in the hearts of My children. Love reigned where I was and still love reigns where I am. Know the tree because of its fruit. A tree full of love will bear fruit of love; fruit of love that evokes life. But poisonous fruit belongs with bad trees and there I am not. Be obedient to Me and love Me. Love will let you understand everything. Practise only love.

Amen

Chapter 18

“Think of My blood that flowed on Golgotha, think of My pierced side and think that I have done it in love.”

Think of Me in the day of tomorrow. I, who is love, will never leave you. And in the times that come, which will be bitter, I will faithfully keep you. All of you who come and sit on My lap, I will save you from great danger. Be faithful to Me and show mercy to others, so that I can reward you with mercy. My mercy is infinite just like Me and without you realising or knowing it, each deed of yours is written in Me and in the day of need every deed of yours will be made known. Those of you who have done good deeds will be repaid and the world will be repaid according to its bad deeds.

Therefore always be prepared to help your fellow-man, so that I can also reach you a helping hand in the coming times. Think of My love for My people who love Me from their hearts; they who seek Me day and night. I will pick them up in My arms and lead them to safety, even if the storm winds howl around them. Against My Father Chest they will come to rest and we will talk like a Father to his beloved children, like a brother to his co-brothers.

Do not think that you are sinful people, but think of My blood which flowed on Golgotha, of My pierced side and think that I have done it in love.” Through the life on earth I served as example to people in all places in the universe and nobody even has an idea of how big My work of salvation is. Once again I want to invite the people to come and look at My work of salvation with new eyes and then you will realise what a great mercy of Mine it was and still is, because thousands upon thousands of souls were rescued through the heavy load that I have carried for everyone. Greater love is there not, that someone lays down his life for millions of people. Do not be an idiot who is seduced by Satan. What did he do for mankind to deserve their honour? But still he receives all the honour and glorification and this while he causes millions to sit enchained in the deepest death. He robs souls and murders them. Criminals on earth are killed in cruel ways, but Satan is honoured for his dirty deeds. If you could smell how he stinks, you would have closed your noses and ran away, but now your souls are still deaf and blind and you cannot smell, because he has blinded you with the smoke of cigarettes which are freely available and so, slowly but steadily he has made you get used to his rotten smell which will let you roar with pain hereafter. There is not one human who can conquer Satan with his own power. Therefore you have to get power from Me, so that you can withstand the tempter. Without My power you are nothing and capable of nothing. I hold the universe with My power alone. Only a thought can destroy everything, but that I will never do, because I do not create in order to destroy, but to rescue. Therefore I say again that you do not have an idea of My great rescue which I have brought about through My death on the cross. The one miracle after the other took place through My death on the cross and what has happened in the hereafter I will make known at another occasion through My writing servants.

My writing servants are people just like you, with sin and desperation and therefore they are also dependant on Me for everything brought to you. But be glad that there is someone who is willing to bring it to you. Carry them in love in your prayers so that it will be to your blessing and theirs. Think that certain people have burdens to carry which are not known to others and do not throw stones and judge, because you do not always understand everything. The one cannot sum up the other by looking at his outer appearance. A human who ignites in his love for Me, shows it only to Me and it is not necessary to tell everybody how much he loves Me, because I know his heart. They dedicate you in their hearts to Me, even if they do not tell you anything and it is also not necessary. They do not walk with their hearts on their sleeve so that everyone can see it. It is a personal matter that only concerns Me. Therefore be a pleasant offering to Me and dedicate your fellow-man to Me only in your heart and you will see how I will answer your prayer. Everything is directed by Me and nobody has an influence on My decisions, but he who comes in love to Me and asks like a child asks a father can soften My heart and I will do everything to satisfy him or her and make them happy. Therefore I say that love is everything, because you can turn Me around your little finger with the love in your heart, provided that it is in My order and that I am satisfied with it. These are the guidelines of life. Follow it!

Amen

Chapter 19

The path of the fallen soul through the creation

In My great creation there is not another place like earth. There is not such a great variety of life and creatures on another planet. Yes, there is life on other planets, but it is hidden for you until the time has come to share this secret with you! You would not have believed it earlier, therefore I have deemed it fit to inform you now, so that one day you will not be able to say that you did not know. There are people on other planets too and they look more or less like you. The difference is just that they are much prettier than the occupants of the earth. The occupants of other planets do not have the heavy burdens which you have to carry on earth and therefore they also do not get old and worn-out like you. The oldest among them are, despite their age, still very much alive and can surpass your young ones in everything. Make no mistake, it is also much more beautiful than here on earth. You will now ask: "But why are we only informed about this now?" It is because earlier you would not have been able to endure it, because you did not seek Me so earnestly and therefore your souls were not capable to be privy to My big secrets. But now that you seek Me your souls are changing and you become riper and more susceptible to My Great Wisdom. Think of My Great Mercy and Compassion and listen further.

Thousands of years ago you have left Me to follow Lucifer, who was My angel of light, and through this you deserted Me and saddened Me immensely. It was necessary to bring you to your senses and certain things were necessary to let you realise what you have done. Man's soul consists of millions of particles, all of which was part of you when you were still with Me. But with your separation from Me, I had to take all those particles apart and send it to different places to be purified and become worthy of Me again. Then the different planets were created to contain your particles. In every plant there are millions and millions of particles. Also on earth the particles are spread in everything that you see around you. The whole planet consists only out of particles of My fallen angels who are still busy to find their way back to Me. Even the people around you are angels who have to find their way back to Me. Shocking, hey? What do you think of yourself? Where do you come from? Were you just created as a fancy or whim of a Higher

Hand who likes looking at you? No! My Love reach too far for that and I have enough to keep Me busy and not do something like this. It is very far from Me to just keep people as marionettes for My pleasure. Everything has a purpose and so you and your existence has purpose too. Your existence here on earth is of much greater value to you as the existence on other planets where they may never call on Me or see Me as a Father. Only the occupants of the earth have the privilege to become My children and they do not appreciate it. They carry on as if they have years to waste and they do not think about the fact that they once came forth from Me. You are the planet of love which I would very much like to bring back into My Father Home, but you do not know it. That is why it has now become time to inform you about your existence. But back to the particles: The millions of particles of a single angel were "tied" in the creation by Me. It cannot come out before it is in My will. This is the confinement of which is spoken. All the phases of creation that you see around you are particles of one or other angel. The particles were firstly confined to the hardest matter, for example asbestos, granite, copper, iron, and all kinds of metals. If the particles in the metals have become softer and more humble, it can be transformed into something softer. The soul particles are living "pieces" in the metals and other phases of creation and when it stops to rebel against Me and My order they can be set free and go into something softer and better. Therefore minerals like iron is so hard because it is the hardening of the soul particles against Me. When it has worked its way through all the metals and minerals, it can go over into the plant world where it also works its way upwards until it has gone through all the plants. The sole particles of one angel are then busy to slowly but surely get together again, after they were set free from the phases in which they were. After this it is the turn of animal life, when they have gone through all the plants. It is a process which takes years and years. The upward movement to Me is slowly resumed until all the animal phases are worked through and the particles have gathered themselves together again and now they are ready to come together in the form of a human. It is here where the procreation of a human plays a role in the upward development to Me. Through procreation the sole particles as a whole go into the form of a human and is brought into the world as a little baby. His previous phases and experiences are then wiped from his memory and he comes forth as a newborn human on earth. It is now that the full responsibility is resting on him to once again unite with Me, his Creator, to come back into the Father Home after the long road. It is why it is so important to seek Me with your whole heart, because you came an immeasurable long road to get here.

The Father Home is now just around the corner and if you play your cards right, like you are used to say, you are almost there. All that is still expected from you, is to love Me with your whole heart, sole and being and then you are with Me again, after a separation of centuries, and in My arms you will rest after the long and arduous road. Like a Father has found back his lost son back, so I have then found you back and together with Me My angelic host will celebrate, because one of My lost, beloved children is home again. Now you also understand the parable of the prodigal son, whose story is written in the Bible. Therefore, seek Me like the prodigal son, again longing back to his Father Home and I, as your Father, will receive you with open arms and a festival will be held and you will become very wise from a parable which you have never really understood. Your Father who ardently and longingly awaits your homecoming, is Me.

Amen

Chapter 20

Rebirth

After the parable of the prodigal son we can go a step further and it is called rebirth. Many a man who is sitting in church and cannot think for himself, will now give everything to defend himself in proving that he is a "reborn Christian" He is completely unawares of the meaning of rebirth and knows absolutely nothing about it. But with hand and teeth he will fight if you would tell him that, despite his belief therein, he is not reborn at all. Rebirth is a process which never stops while you are on earth. Here and there, there are people who reach it in human form, but these people are very rare, because the true and tender love for Me is the basis thereof and nobody has such a love for Me. Should someone have such a love for Me, he would reach the rebirth. In My creation on earth there are only an insignificantly small number of people who reach it. Most people can only reach it when the soul is separated from the body in the bodily death. Then what is rebirth?

It is the total unification with Me, your Father and Creator of all centuries. If your soul has fallen in love with Me, you grow closer to Me until We later become One, but few people reach this, because it requires total surrender to Me and detachment from the world. Most people are so tied to their earthly possessions and therefore cannot break free to serve Me. The average churchgoer is totally convinced that he serves Me, but what he does not realise is that he is serving his church in stead of Me. Churches are establishments who uses Me, very cleverly, as money-making article. The church members are totally convinced that they serve Me when they donate money to the church who put it to "good use". Tell such an honest churchgoer that he is really supporting the god of Mammon, and you will be denounced as heretic who does not have respect for The Lord. They think that I can be found in an empty building with a detestable smell. The only building where I am to be found is in your hearts. But back to the rebirth. The rebirth really begins when you give your heart to Me unconditionally. Then you begin to walk the path with Me to the Father Home. It is a road full of thorns and thistles, but I walk with you all the time and lead you softly over all the holes. The heights I level for you and the valleys I fill up so that your path can be as level as possible. It is the bumps and knocks in life which serve to purify you and to build your faith and trust in Me. If you learn through this it serves as benefit to your soul and you then grow closer to Me. As you are growing you are giving up the world and its desires to become pure in this way, in order to contain more and more of My spirit. The love for Me brings you more quickly to your end destination and therefore it is important to love Me. I will cherish you and hold you tight on your road and it will shorten your path. It will lead your attention away from all the suffering on the long road and before you know it you are already there. But it also requires work on yourself. Examine yourself continuously for faults and bring it to Me and I will help you and take the burden from your shoulders while I cleanse you. I am with you the whole path and will help you with everything – if you give it to Me. Therefore the rebirth is a long process and not something that you reach with one prayer. Nobody is reborn after just asking Me once. It is the unification with Me and therefore it takes many trials and things which come on your path to get you to leave the world behind. But the goal can be reached with full faith in Me and above all, the love for Me, your Creator and faithful Father Jahweh.

Amen

Chapter 21

Body, soul and spirit

After the rebirth, next it is the turn of the body, soul and spirit. A short explanation of each will follow. Your body is the container of My Spirit. The body also gives housing to the soul which is the personality. It is who you are. Your personality is embedded in the soul and everything which you decide is in reality the soul which is instructing you. Your body is maintained by the soul which is actively busy with the upkeep of your body. Therefore the body decays and decomposes after the earthly death because the soul is not present anymore with its attributes of maintenance. What is more is that everything that you think is held in the soul and when you leave this life, you will realise that you can still think and act without the body. The soul is then free to come and go as she pleases and is not enchained in a dead and heavy body anymore. Proof of this lies in the fact that the living human can move very far in his thoughts by means of his thoughts. In a matter of moments he can be on the moon if he thinks about it. The soul, different to the body, is free and unbound, while the body is only subdued to the laws of nature, for example gravity. The spirit inside you is My Spirit which was breathed into you the day when you were born. You have My Spirit inside you, but it depends on you, yourself, how you are going to develop it. If you do not develop it, it is the fate which you determine for yourself in the hereafter. Therefore you must develop the Spirit inside you through the love for your fellow-man. The Spirit then increase until it takes the soul over completely which is the same as saying that your will has become My will. Only then is rebirth reached after much spiritual growth and progress. But it seldom happens and therefore it cannot serve as example to man, because nowhere on earth someone can be found who has already been reborn spiritually. All My prophets of old were reborn and therefore they could look in the future. But they were NOT fortune tellers, but could only predict that which was useful for the spiritual growth of the people of that time. The people were warned about the bad times which would come so that they would convert themselves to Me. The spirit is slumbering in every one and it depends on each one if he is going to develop it. How do you develop the Spirit inside you?

Through self-denial, good deeds towards others, true neighbourly love and above all – love for Me. The more you love Me, the more your spirit develops. The spirit is also the voice inside you that accuses you and calls you. Do not “smother” My voice calling inside you by ignoring Him, because it is My voice and if I would stop calling, difficult times awaits you, because I may never call you again. Then you will become more and more disloyal to Me and somewhere along the way you will lose Me to never find Me back again.

Man now has a choice. His soul can choose between Me, Who is the Spirit, or his body, which is the earthly voice of temptations. The soul rushes to the side which is calling the loudest and will become intimately interwoven with the side he chooses. Therefore take care that you choose the right side, because the side you choose will determine your fate. Therefore I say that I do not judge, but My words do, because here you receive My word. You must choose for yourself. If you choose the body and its needs then you choose death. In the previous chapter we have talked about the enchainment, that is to say, the encapsulated particles in the matter (metal and other phases of My creation). These particles are enchained, because the owner thereof has chosen not to listen to My voice. Thus he has chosen death, because everything which is against Me, is death, because I am life. The particles is stuck in matter and if you choose matter, it is fatal to the soul, because then the soul cannot arise to true life in the life hereafter with and in Me. You must think carefully what you want – the earthly temptation, which only provides for temporary happiness, or Me, Who can prepare everlasting happiness for you if you desire it. Earthly temptation in itself is everything which provides pleasure to the body and with that a tie is formed between the soul and the body and on the day of death the tie cannot be broken. Then the soul hangs onto the dead body and cannot arise to the true life. Life, on the other hand, is in Me and Me alone and therefore it is advisable to rather choose Me. I want to make you happy and do not want to see you sad and unhappy and therefore I want you to choose Me. You will forever be happy against My Father Chest where you will live forever and this is the perfect everlasting life to which you should strive on earth. This is why I continuously send warnings and reprimands to get you to make the right decision, because the wrong decision can and will bring you everlasting sadness and pain. Think ahead and not just about the pleasure of now, because anything which gives you pleasure now and takes your attention away from Me, has the ability to keep you imprisoned if you allow it. Think ahead and be wise and do not allow earthly pretence-happiness to decide for you.

Amen

Chapter 22

Baptism. Take up My cross and I will make your burden lighter.

Those of you who have comprehended the previous chapters very well, can now proceed to the following aspect of Life. If you did not comprehend the previous ones, you can now come and ask on you knees (it is humble), so that I can open your hearts and minds, so that you can also comprehend the words of life and be saved through it. The next point which I would like to go to, is the baptism. Everyone knows what the baptism is. Or so you think. The baptism you know, is the baptism of Johannes with water. It is not the baptism which I refer to. The baptism which I speak of is the baptism in your hearts. It is the baptism of humility and victory over death. With My death on the cross on earth, people went through a baptism of fire. Those who loved Me were under the impression that by only loving Me, they were ready for My Kingdom hereafter which I have prepared with My death. But this was not so. For each human on earth there are certain things which he has to go through to become worthy of Me. This is the purification of which it is spoken. Each one who gives his heart to Me, is assured of all My love, but must also be able to suffer for Me. That is why things sometimes come on your path which are not pleasant. In your country there are many such opportunities to suffer for Me. The oppressors ensure that you suffer wherever possible. Just look at the farmers and the land claims. Nothing is so unfair, but I allow it and here and there it so happens that certain places are dispossessed. But look what is happening with the nation now. The farmers come together and start talking. Here and there someone stands up in My Name and tries to encourage the people by referring to your nation's history where I have saved your ancestors from the claws of cruel barbarians. But most of them grab at straws and try to collect money to run to a human who can do just as little in this matter as they can themselves. Discord now starts to originate among them about what to do. Some mean to sell, otherwise you will not get the price of your land. Others want to fight it. Everyone goes home unsatisfied. Just to hold a meeting again after a few weeks about meaningless things. The few who really believe in Me, now starts to pray fervently and each time the telephone rings, they wonder with fear and trembling what the land claims commissioner has decided this time. But the one or two who has a love relationship with Me, go their way as if the wind only blows outside, because he knows, he has nothing to fear – I, his Creator, Saviour and tender Father fights the case for him. What can a whole world do when his DAD is with him? But the rest is not so lucky. Sleepless nights lie ahead and in fear they roll around with the following questions: Where do we go? What will we really get for the land? What if we are suddenly dispossessed out of the blue?

What kind of questions are these for a person who is supposed to trust in his Creator? Man now quickly begins to doubt My power and in the process his soul suffers damage. He has suffered for Me. Not in the sense of that which you think of, but he has nevertheless suffered. Despair makes the heart heavy and there is now enough on his heart to push his heart into the ground. He tries to make his heart lighter with all kinds of earthly pleasures like "socializing", as you call it. I call it a booze party, but forward with the strugglers. Plans are devised, but nothing is done. At the end of the day that person goes home without a solution, with great sadness in his heart, which he hides with difficulty from his fellow-man. This thing presses heavier on his heart. He will carry on like this until he realises where his salvation lies. If he would just come to Me in full faith and trust, his situation would look much different. He will carry on until he has placed his problem on My shoulders.

The persons who have called Me first, were baptised with a soft baptism of fire, because they came to seek shelter with Me. They stand fast like a rock on Me, their Saviour, and wait. And just like I have always redeemed in the past, I will redeem again, but it is their great luck I have taken all the fire of the baptism of fire on Me and made the pain so much less as for the other who are still rolling around in their beds. And I am a God who keeps My word. I have said: "Cast all your troubles on Me. I will make your yoke softer and your burdens less. Just pick up My yoke."

But the others have chosen to carry their yoke by themselves and My soft yoke and light burden they did not want to carry. Whose fault will it then be if they suffer and perhaps lose their land in the process? Accusingly they will then point a finger at Mine and give them the blame, because they did not go to court with them. Who will find Me in today's judicial system? I am not to be found in court, where dishonest verdicts are at the order of the day and therefore you must seek Me in the quiet of your inner rooms (your hearts). There I can be found and it is also the only honest courtroom which exists and there justice and fairness will prevail, because nobody has to swear on the truth. I know each one's heart and knows how far the innocence goes. The baptism of fire is the process through which each person on earth goes and it already starts when you are small. Brothers and sisters fight since they were babies and it is to teach them to handle confrontations in life that follows. It now depends on the parents to get the children's focus right. They must be taught to come and discuss all problems with Me in the inner room of the heart. There is not one person on earth who does not have to suffer for Me and it happens in peculiar things around you. Small problems which look very big to you, but which I can turn around in your favour if you would entrust it to Me with a passionate heart. For Me nothing is impossible and by entrusting it to Me, you and I exchange burdens. I take your heavy burden from your shoulders and you take My soft yoke and light burden on your shoulders. In other words, I avert the warm flames of the baptism of fire from you and you will walk away unharmed and with the least scorch wounds. The people who do not want to come to Me for help, they must go and stand in the flames themselves where they must avert the full heat themselves. It is not the fault of My children who trust in Me. It is also not My fault if they do not want to be helped. But each one must go through the baptism of fire to purify you when it is given over into My hands. But those who want to carry it themselves, they will not be purified. They are scorched closed and then they are not receptive to Me anymore. (they lose their faith in Me) and then a harsher fire is necessary to try to purify them. That is why some people have problems frequently. They refuse to be purified and stubbornly cling to the heavy burden which they could easily have given to Me. I am prepared to carry everyone's burdens, if they would just give it over to Me. My children, I love you so much that I have given My life for you. The heavy cross I have carried and you do not have to carry a heavy burden. Take up My cross and I will lighten your burden.

Amen

Chapter 23

The fellow-man. The baptism

Today there are a few things that I would like to bring under your attention. The first is: Who is your fellow-man? The fellow-man has been a point of dispute for years in many a human heart. Is it the man walking next to you in the street or the beggar asking for food? Who is it? The question is very elementary and can be answered in the following sentence. Every one who has less than you is your fellow-man. Of course this is in your own people/nation. Other nations are not under discussion now. The person who comes to ask is your fellow-man and in turn you are the fellow-man of someone who has more than you. Concluded. Next is the baptism. Do you have to be baptised with water? No, it is a ritual performed by people that has no meaning to Me. What can water do for your soul's welfare? It is the baptism with My Spirit which is important. What does it help you, that you have climbed into a bath and was rinsed with water? Is the heart now cleansed of sin through this? No, decidedly not. It is only Me Who can cleanse and you are cleansed through Me. Through My Son Who is Wisdom, through Me Who is Love and through My Spirit Who is the Power. Not through might (human power) or through violence, but through My Spirit, I have said, and nothing that a human does with outward gestures, can change anything to it. The norm of today, where a bunch of people simultaneously get into a swimming pool to receive the so-called baptism is an abomination to Me. You can only be baptised in your heart. My Spirit is not outward, but works deeply inward. Therefore do not think that you are now saved if you have been baptised with water. The baptiser was in any case not called by Me. If he was, he would have known what the true baptism is. Strive to be baptised by My Holy Spirit. It is the salvation for your soul. Become worthy of Me, so that I can come with My Spirit and fill you, then you are baptised completely.

Amen

Chapter 24

Clever and learned means nothing, a pure heart is everything

Today there are very clever and learned people everywhere on earth. Actually, the people are world-literate and learned. Universities and colleges are overflowing with students and people who are just trying to get a degree behind their name. Now I would like to know the following: What does the clever learned person's certificate and degree have to do with Me? Will it bring a benefit for him with Me?

I do not say that a human should obtain nothing on earth, but what does the one degree after the other mean for the good of your soul? Will you one day go to a better place than your illiterate brother standing next to you? What does the literate have that the illiterate does not have? I will tell you: A very big head, like you are used to saying. And it is not beneficial at all. It is really very detrimental, because they are then unbalanced and can easily come to a fall. The illiterate look to Me for help, while the clever learned depends on himself. The problem now comes in, that the big head is so heavy to turn from side to side, that he cannot look at his fellow-man next to him. The head must then be kept with the nose in the air at all times. This is where the term "nose in the air" comes from. The illiterate, on the other hand, can look around them and see the suffering of their fellow-man. Then they can then reach out a helping hand without fear of losing their balance. This is why I say: Do not be too clever in your own eyes. By being too clever, you block My Spirit out completely and then My Wisdom cannot take root in you, because you are too full of your own dung. Dung is the term to use, because man keeps him busy with things which are not pleasing to Me at all. In stead of looking around you at people who need your help, you just look at yourself. In the modern-day life a certificate is very important. With Me certificates are null and void and all that counts with Me is a pure heart. If a clever learned person is living in My Name and loves Me with his whole heart he is pleasing to Me. It has nothing to do with his qualifications. All that I desire and I say it all the time, is a pure heart which is affectionate to Me. Then it does not matter if his pants are dirty. It will not change something in My love for him. Purify your hearts and not your clothes, which means to say, do not bother too much with the appearance, but work on your inner life. Purify your hearts so that I can take up residence therein with My fullness. With Me there is nothing as bad as haughtiness. Not much money, beautiful possessions or a beautiful appearance is pleasing to Me. Only a pure heart looking for Me. Honest, sincere prayers are what I answer and not puffed up, human-pleasing prayers which are focussed on affecting and stimulating people for personal benefit. It is an abomination to Me and I will eradicate it with My Power where I can. Where I can means to say that I will purify as far as man allows Me. You people do not see yourself like I see you and what is insignificant in your eyes, is great impurity in Mine. Therefore cast all dirty things away from you, so that I can fill you and so you will also see the dirty and impure things. It is a great privilege to walk with Me, because you as occupants of earth are the only people in My universe who can become My children. Do not lose your chances, because you will not easily get a chance again.

The Everlasting Father and Shepherd calls you to His Chest to embrace you with all His Love.

All the praise and honour belongs to Me, because I am the One Who saves where there is no redemption. Think about Me every minute and every second and I will accommodate you. Babies in the spirit is what I look for and not clever wise men who want to surpass Me in wisdom. Because the day that we sit in council together their wisdom will shamefully let them down.

And they will have to admit that the wisdom is Mine alone. With that it is concluded.

Amen

Chapter 25

Lust

The following is a very thorny matter and can actually only be discussed among adults. It is about lust. Lust is a term which is often wrongly understood. It does not only mean that you desire your fellow-man's wife, but even your own wife. You will catch yourself looking at a woman fervidly and without you knowing it, you are busy with adultery. What I want is pure hearts and therefore this chapter is discussed. This concerns both sexes. I have created the sexual act so that man can procreate. What was a necessary and pure deed, was completely blown out of proportion and cannot be used for the same purposes anymore. Man is such an impure creature and everything which I have made holy, he desecrates. It is because man lends his ears to Satan. Not one of you can claim that he has never been lustful. This is something which I want to make clear now. Lust is a desire of the flesh and therefore cannot bring any benefit to the soul. Besides procreation, the sexual act is unnecessary and a waste of precious energy, which can be used for spiritual development. Among you there are those who would say: Then why were we created with such an urge? It can surely not be a sin if we were created like this? But I say: How can you become master over something, if you are not exposed to it? How can you conquer the physical urges and desires, if you do not have such urges. You must live pure and it means to live in your inner being. Not outwardly. The worldlings live outwardly. Just look around you and you will see that the emphasis is put on appearance all the time. Clothing must be stylish and tasteful – it does not matter if it is unchaste or alluring. There is no respect for the body which is the temple of My Spirit. There is nothing on the market today which is not aimed at the body. Vehicles are made as luxurious as possible, so that the body can be pleased. Aeroplanes are designed so that man can fly back and forth and can acquire possessions. Just think about everything that you can buy in today's shops. Nothing is focussed on the spirit, everything is about the flesh. People do not ponder this. Indeed, you are created with a body and therefore it must be gratified! But if you would go and sit still and think why you have a body, you will learn a lot from it. I am here to help you with My Father Love and therefore I will tell you why you have a body. The body is a test which you have to undergo to become spirit one day. You must learn, despite urges and desires, to live in the spirit. I know it is very difficult, because once I too was on earth as a human. It will be difficult for you to believe, that I also had urges, but with My Father's help – Who is Love, I have conquered everything and I have stepped as conqueror from the battle. Do not think that I was born without urges, because then you are making a mistake. When I say that I understand how it feels to have a body, I mean it. It is a thorny matter and each one must ponder it well, that each time when you have sexual intercourse, without the goal to beget children, you yield to the body's desires and it causes the body to become strong in its desires and the soul forges a solid bond with the body which cannot easily be broken. In a previous chapter the body, soul and spirit were already discussed and therefore it is unnecessary to elaborate further about it. Just remember that the soul becomes attached to the body through earthly pleasure and that she will find it difficult to separate from the body after death and this then means everlasting death. And I want My children to arise to eternal life with Me and in Me, because I love you. Arm in arm I want to walk with you and I want to embrace you with a passionate embrace of My Fatherly Love. Therefore think about it before you do something again which causes too much pleasure to the body and think about it that I have warned you today. I want to help you and carry you through difficult times when the body tends to become too strong. Convey it in spirit to Me, your Saviour and Friend and tender Brother. I WILL help you where you want to be helped. You must just give Me the opportunity and I will transform you into pure creatures who are worthy of Me. And I will transform you into My pure little children, whom I love very much. Just be affectionate to Me in your hearts. But there where My help is not requested, there I will also not help, because you are free to do what you want and I respect your freedom. But you must also respect Me as your Father and Saviour Who does not say anything to you which is not to your benefit.

Amen

Chapter 26

Education of children

The subject we will talk about now is the education of children. Most of you who are reading My words here, have children. The child is a creature who is granted to adults so that he can be transformed into a grown-up who is worthy of Me. Unfortunately child education has vanished into thin air in most cases. The parents think that by giving the child everything which he desires, he convinces the child of his love for him or her. Nothing can be further from the truth. The child is, just like his parents, a human of flesh and blood and therefore his soul can also become attached to earthly pleasures. Toys are aimed today to harm the child's soul with violence. The parents are so uninformed that they do not realise what their children are doing. Today demonic toys are freely available on the shelves and many a child has something evil in his room. Where can My Spirit find a place in such a child's heart, if he is sharing his life and aspirations, since he was very small, with demons which do not feel anything for the child? They are aiming to win another one for hell and without parents realising it, they give their consent, because they are responsible for the child's education. Among others, I also spoke of them when I said that a millstone must be tied around his neck. It is better that the parent goes into perdition alone, than pulling the child together with him. Children are precious beings, who are also My children. They are not the property of the parents alone and therefore they are a very big responsibility. Do not think that your child must work out his own soul's salvation. It is your responsibility, as parent, to daily impress on them the responsibility that he or she has towards Me. How can you expect to learn a child about Me only in his early teens, when he is already formed? Impress it on him, every day and without stopping you must pray for your child, because the wolves and jackals outside lie in wait to prowl on fresh blood that they can devour and anxiously they wait on another soul who they can pull down below with them. And then when they are below, how will you as parent get him out? The evil ones are much harsher on children than on adults, because they are an easy prey. Once the child has made the transgression to become unfaithful to Me, it is much more difficult to bring him to his senses, because children do not yet have the sense of responsibility which an adult has. Therefore it is important to dedicate a child to Me from his birth and I will hold My Hand over him or her in his growing up process. A child must learn to play virtuously from childhood, by giving him toys that teaches him about Me, for example building blocks. It teaches him that there is a certain order in My creation and also to be constructive and not destructive. He also learns about gravity and the parent must actively play with the child and tell him about My creation while he plays. Then your children will be pleasing and will become decent grown-ups. Keep any toy away which is aimed at teaching the child vanity. Unfortunately little daughters are taught about vanity very quickly because mommy always dresses her up and since they are small make-up is pasted on the innocent little face. The emphasize is then already placed on the outward appearance and soon she will begin to take notice of her friends' clothing and hair and she will compare herself to them. If they are not prettier than she is in her own eyes, with a wealth of detail they are quickly told this, which in turn then evokes a reaction in them. Then they try to outdo her with prettier clothes than she has and it evokes mutual jealousy. When she realises that one of her friends is prettier than she is, there is hell to pay. Mom and Dad must then just take out money so that she can have better possessions than her mate. It is an evil of today that parents want to brag with their pretty children. The dumb parents make real devils of their children who are fit for hell, even before they are six years old. Stop pumping your child full of earthly vanity. Beauty competitions are straight from hell and is just focussed on spoiling the child's self-image, because the child always wants to be the prettiest and skinniest and best-dressed personality. Nothing of Me can be detected in this. Beauty is NOT a talent which should not be hidden under a bushel. Rather conceal your child's earthly beauty and teach him or her that the real beauty is the spirit inside them. Then your children will be pleasing before Me and I will come with My blessings. The child who is pleasing to Me, is a pure, innocent child and I can easily fill him/her with My Spirit and it can only be a benefit to him/her on the path of life which lies ahead. Love your children in Me and not in the world and they will be a blessing to you.

Amen

Chapter 27

The churches in South Africa

In the next chapter we are going to talk about the churches in South Africa. Many a churchgoer will now sit up and with a fervent heart and a fervent look in his eyes he will defend his church. Listen carefully, before you jump up, throw the book down and stop reading. You in South Africa, you are My nation and therefore you must live holy and separately. The churches, on the contrary, preach to you idiots that you must accommodate everyone, otherwise you do not love Me. Otherwise you do not live in neighbourly love. It is not the truth. It is one of the lies reigning in the churches today. Do not be misled. You have My Spirit in your hearts. Listen to it when I call you and I will teach you the truth and not false doctrines of people. Today it is the norm to be in a church where My Name means nothing. I am not a God Who mixes with idolatry principles. Therefore do not sadden My Holy Spirit and associate with this. One church claims that they alone posses the truth. What is truth? Is it not that you must serve Me with your whole heart, soul and spirit? Is it truth to sit in a church where congregation members defame each other covertly and always try to be in the preacher's good books? Who is the preacher? A half-god who can take over My work in the name of money? Who is called to carry out My Word? It is the man who loves Me from the depth of his heart and professes Me day and night. How many preachers profess Me day and night? The moment he gets off the pulpit he fornicates and kicks up a row just as happily as the rest of the nation. Can such a person be pleasing to Me? No, definitely not. I am only to be found there where someone loves Me and in My Name brings My Word to others. He brings the bread of life and not death. There are always fundraisings which are held in aid of the church. Does the church give unconditionally to any poor person? No, they first make certain whether he is a member of their church. Did I not say: help the poor? Anyone in need must be helped, but they decide who they can possibly help and then a minimal amount is donated. For this I must be very glad and reward them with eternal life. How perverted can you get? It is said that you must love your fellow-man like yourself, but they also just decide who is their fellow-man and who is not. The poor is NOT his fellow-man, because he does not bring him any personal benefit. The rich, on the other hand, is recognised in all the church affairs and he will always give donations in the name of Mammon. This is who the churches of today serve and there is nobody who can prove the contrary. Nobody can argue with Me, because I know the deepest secrets of each one and each organisation is an open book to Me. Therefore be careful to which organisation you belong and test it with My Spirit in your heart. My Spirit will make everything clear to you. Be full of love for Me and You will live and no church organisation can guarantee you everlasting life, only Me and Me alone. Therefore you must search for Me in the quiet of your heart and it is not necessary to go to church and search for Me there, because you will never find Me there where a robber's cave is. Be pleasing to Me with your life and not with your church membership or church attendance.

It is where you will receive eternal life: From Me, your Creator and only true Shepherd Who has laid down his life for His sheep. Do not trust in the false shepherds who will deliver the sheep to the wolves in a time of need. It is Me, the true Shepherd Who is calling you now and inviting you to become part of My congregation. A congregation who serves Me in spirit and not in the flesh. It is My will for each one of My sheep: That you become one with Me, the Father, Saviour and Son. I love you and will always be there to save you when the wolves and jackals make an assault on you. Flee into My arms and I will keep you faithfully without a hair getting lost. You must not seek Me in outer worship, but in your hearts and it will be a pure offering to Me which I will gladly accept. It is so and not different.

Amen

Chapter 28

"I give and I take"

In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with Me and the Word is Me. I am the Way, the Truth and Life. He who walks on Me, walks the Way to Everlasting Life. He who chooses to go his own way, goes on the way of death and death shadows. He Who seeks Me, will find Me, as certain as the sun is shining outside. Seek Me while I can still be found and I will not conceal Myself to you, because I am a God of extremes. There is nobody who can find Me if I conceal Myself, and when I allow Myself to be found, I am as clear as daylight, as far and as near. I remind you of the waves of the sea. The one moment you are so high that you can see for miles, just to be so low the next moment that you fear of being engulfed. In his existence on earth, man is just like the sea. The one moment his heart is full of My praise and the next moment he feels desolate like a barren coastline of which the water has pulled back for miles. The heart is the beach, which is filled with My praise, just to feel empty and separated from Me the next moment, but the Sea (Me) will continue to exist and in its swells it will never rest. It is always busy filling the one coastline and on another coastline it is pulling back its water. But can My love stop? Is there a limit to My might, power, love or existence? Can I ever desert or destroy the creatures today which I have created yesterday? What do you think about My might? Do you think that I am not an everlasting God Who can make and break as I please? Then you make a big mistake, because I am the Only, First, Last and Greatest. There is nobody who can hold a candle to Me. I give and I take. I can and I shall and I may, because everything lies in My hands. From the small vulnerable little bird to a mighty heap of waters / nations. Do not think that I am limited in something, because then you underestimate Me thoroughly and I am thorough. When I do something, I do not do it halfway – I go full out – to the end. But in My might I am as soft as the morning dew on a beautiful rose. I am pure like the first rays of the sun on a shining, frosted lawn. I am more beautiful than the most beautiful shining water and I am love. More love than Me is nowhere to be found. Love which surpasses everything, love that does not stop for anything. Not even death. Love that heals, strokes and transforms the softest and the sorest sore into soft mercy. And for you, My nation, I am there and I will never stop to pour My Spirit over you in times like these. I will not take My hand away from you. I will not leave you. Even if you have left Me ten times, I will stand by you. Because I am faithful, just as sure as the sun which is shining on your heads. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. The Only, Greatest, I Am that exists into infinity, has been since forever and Who purifies you without looking at your sins again. Be worthy of My loving heart and allow Me to purify you, so that you can again be pleasing to My eye and a worthy burden to My soul. I Am is saying these words to you, My endearing and tender beloved. Think of Me day and night and you will find Me.

YAHWEH until eternity.

All My love

Amen.

Chapter 29

“Purify yourself through love for Me and the neighbour and you will be clean”

Like it is written in My Word of the centuries (The Bible), I am One Elohim, visiting the iniquities of the fathers upon the children down to the generations thereafter. But does it then mean that I never forgive? No, I am a forgiving El (God) Who beams love to all My creatures, through the whole of creation. Universe after universe are sustained by My mercy and I personally look after the smallest part thereof. In My whole universe there is no unclear particle to Me. I investigate and see through everything. To Me, nothing about it is concealed, not even the most sinful heart with a pious face can be concealed to Me. And in My universe there is just clarity before Me, because I know everything, create everything, direct everything, maintain everything and nobody can fail to appreciate Me in My works. If he would look, he will immediately recognize Me in it. I know what I do and why I do things. Therefore do not ask Me “what are You doing”; because I can make and break like I want to. But everywhere you will see My love and it is as big as the heavens. What is more, heaven after heaven can disappear in My love. Therefore it is wrong to think that I never forgive. I forgive day after day – night after night. He who comes to Me with love and true remorse, is forgiven as sure as I live. And his sins are not thought of any more. I wash his sins from him and he will be pure into infinity. My blood is stronger than the strongest sea and purifies to the marrow. There is not a sin that can stay behind when I, the great Purifier, has come past. The cleaners or purifiers are usually people who are looked down upon, but they do an honourable work, because they are equal to Me in the sense that I am also a Purifier. Do not look down on such like. Rather try to also be a purifier by forgiving your brother’s sins against you, then you cleanse your heart of bitterness and jealousy. Jealousy and so forth must be cleansed from your inside. Do not bear grudges against people, because revenge belongs to Me. I alone can decide on who I want to avenge Myself. But I am a soft, forgiving God for those who look for Me in love and love is that which purifies you, because I am love. Purify yourself through the love for Me and the neighbour and you will be clean. I will not think of one of your previous sins. Even if it was as big and as deep as the sea. You will, cleansed by My blood, walk arm in arm with Me, and we will talk like two pure brothers, because I have washed away all the filth from you. Be pure like I am pure. Keep any gossip far away from you and I will come and make My home with you. Everything, everything, everything belongs to Me. Give Me your sins also.

Amen

Chapter 30

Love restrains the extinction of species

There are sincere people in every group of the community: Sincere crooks, sincere criminals and sincere robbers. Then, of course, there are the sincere of heart who are dear to My heart. I want honest, sincere hearts, so that I can reside there. I want to make my home in a sincere heart. But there are extremely little sincere people to be found who are pleasing to Me. They are literally as scarce as chicken teeth, as you like to say. The truly sincere who seek Me, have disappeared with the dinosaurs. Here and there one can be found in the desolate areas of Africa. In the same way, the sincere of heart, in the world-sea of people, is a rarity. I hope that you who is reading here, is one of the scarce specie. If you are not, you better make a plan quickly, because the specie is busy dying out quickly, because of a lack of love inside the heart. Honest, sincere love is the certainty a specie needs in order to survive. My love is so great that it cannot be measured. Look around you and you will see that My love sustains everything – definite proof that love restrains the extinction of the species. Therefore bring love into your heart and you will live on without extinction. Think hard and deeply about this and you will see the wisdom therein. The Wise, Sole Almighty says this.

Amen.

“Just seek MY friendship”

In and around My creation there are certain things which you cannot see. There are many secrets that today's scientists will never find out, for instance what the clouds are made up of. Clouds consists of soul particles which are still very “raw.” They are lower spirits which do not know Me completely. Therefore it is important to seek Me with attention and love, so that you can understand it easily. My creation is the consequence of My might. I do not create without a goal. There is a goal with everything. My creation is without faults and it is only the humans who would like to find fault in it. I am Almighty and elevated above any human critique. Everywhere where there are clever, learned people, My creation, or Word, is criticised – even man's body. Bodies are never perfect enough. The one is too fat and the other too skinny. Nobody's length is ever right for him. People criticise each other according to outer appearances, because they cannot see the inner side. And because they cannot see the inner side, they are fooled that they can lie to each other and deceive each other. You are a holy nation to Me; the descendants of kings and royal children and therefore you are My chosen ones and I want to free you and save you. On the outside My little nation appears carefree, but on the inside of their hearts you will find fear of the future. This is the privilege and luck of everyone that stays with Me – that you can have peace over the future. You are all full of worldly struggles and nobody has given up the world. Everyone is struggling to lay the earthly down. Your spiritual eyes will miss nothing and in your clairvoyance you will praise Me, because I create the most wondrous things around you. Even if you could see yourself, you would be amazed about the appearance of your inner soul. Fear (respect) Me and seek Me, then your spiritual eye will be opened to the bliss and salvation of your soul. Your soul is precious in My eyes and therefore I want you to give all your sins to Me. And you will find salvation and you will find rest with Me, Your Only, True Saviour and Friend. Just seek My friendship.

Amen

Chapter 32

“Come and ask Me and I will give you an answer.”

The true believer serves Me, his Creator and true friend from the depths of his heart and there can never come separation between us. On the surface it appears as if separation between us takes place, but in fact it is just a test which comes into that human's life. The people on the outside experience this as a complete metamorphosis happening in that person. I as Almighty Creator and Saviour never conceal Myself to My children. They will always find Me if they seek Me sincerely and in times of need they are never left to their own mercy, although it sometimes feels like it. There are those among you who doubt My control of things around you. Things look bad and it looks as if I as Father just leaves it to cause damage. However, it is not so. In My universe there is not another place like the earth and only here the Satan can do as he pleases. It was made the footrest to his feet since he has taken over the world. I am still in control and he cannot harm My children, because you stand under My protection. Just come and take refuge under My wings and everything will be made clear to you. The people among you who are endowed with certain gifts from My Mighty hand, are under My wings just as much as all the other people, even if you are in the spotlight. Do not fear the attacks of evil, who want to subdue you and stop you from working for Me. You do not understand everything, but come and ask Me and I will give you an answer. You will receive explanations on all your questions. Do not be fearful or bewildered, because behold, I rescue you and keep you, so that the evil Satan will not have the upper hand over you. The Satan is perverted and in his might he thinks that he has power over My children too, but he does not. Do not fear the judgment on darkness because I am with you to keep you and rescue you. Just come and take refuge with Me, your Saviour on the white horse and even before the evil force has a hold on you, I will save you and protect you. Do not fear in the face of danger, because I have already conquered it and before you know what happens you are already saved by Me, your Redeemer and friend. You must just be awake for any attack and dedicate it to Me Who will jump to you assistance in a time of need and death. Do not fear the future and think about it that I am always in control and not Satan or a human. Man's power is limited to certain things and only I can do the impossible. So be mindful of Me and I will save you from the danger of death and sin. You will not fall. My saving Hand is around you – above you, under you, to you left, to your right, in front of you and behind you and best of all – inside you. You will be freed from all oppressive burdens and you will stand up for Me so that I can fill you with My Spirit and you will become a useful article to Me. No man has ever seen what I prepared for those who fight for Me and they will receive power to carry on in times of great darkness and need. Just be faithful to Me in your worshipping and Love and everything will be made right for you. It will be fulfilled in the Name of YaHshua of the heavenly host.

Amen

Chapter 33

“Think of Me always”

Think of Me on the day of despair and death, I have always told those who love Me. But do not only think of Me in the face of danger. Think of Me constantly. I want to save you before the enemy starts with his assaults. You must carry Me in your heart, before the dawn of the great and illustrious day of Me, your Father and Creator. Do not think that you are saved by going to church now and then or by calling on Me in your hearts now and then. I want to be worshipped by you from the depth of your heart. I want to be loved and I want your whole love, because it is Mine. It came forth from Me and it will return to Me to once again be one with Me, the great Giver of life. The sooner you give yourself back to Me, the greater your bliss will become and in the face of danger you will have nothing to fear, because We are One. I want your love day and night and without stop you must pray to Me for power and mercy, which will be granted to you by Me, The Great Giver. Do not think that the power is coming from you. It simply and solely comes from Me and nobody matches up to Me. You must not leave Me, because I only want your love and you will only benefit by loving Me, Who has laid down His life for you. Without Me nobody can follow his earthly path. It is simply and solely Me Who is maintaining you with My everlasting Love. If I was an unforgiving God, I would already have destroyed the complete creation a long time ago because of the great sin against Me. But now I have understanding for you as humans and only ask your love in order to transform you into new creatures who are worthy of Me. Your love for Me is of cardinal importance and like a jealous bridegroom I want to watch over you, so that you will not become disloyal to Me. I am a jealous God and I will not allow anyone to play with Me. I want you to surrender to Me totally. Do not think that I am satisfied with the residue of your love. Love is My “food” and you are My “dish”. I want to cherish you in My arms and bring you to safety and without you knowing it, I have never forgotten you since the first moment you went forth from Me. You are precious pearls in My eyes and I have already given My life for you. Therefore you must also give your earthly life to Me, so that I can come with My Spirit and take you over and transform you into love. It means: lay down all worldly pleasure at My feet, so that I can find pleasure in you.

Amen

Chapter 34

The Messenger. The earth will stagger. Promises by YaHshua

In the coming days I will send My messenger and he will fulfil My word. On My command he will call My whole Zion's host together so that I can gather all of them. Then it is the end of time which has dawned. You do not have an idea of how things on earth will then worsen. War and death will be the order of the day and there will be weeping like never before. Nobody will be spared this, because the catastrophes will touch everyone. Everyone will lose something. Even if it is just his house and goods, but he will lose something. But to those who are faithfully waiting on My coming I just want to say: Do not be afraid or bewildered, because , your Saviour, has already saved you and nothing that you lose will harm you. It will be a gain for the soul and it will enrich your spirits. Not one of Mine will even lose a hair, because I will be with you every moment of your life and even if the winds howl and the sun is darkened, I am there. You do not have to fear because as long as I am in control, everything will work out good for your. It will be the fate of everyone who loves Me and who carries Me in their hearts. Therefore do not be anxious and fearful and trust Me completely, because it is written that those who wait on YaHshua will receive new power and I AM YAHSHUA, THE EVERLASTING I AM, Who commands the storms and stirs the sea and calms the sea as if it never had a swell. As big as it is, the earth will shudder and shake and there is nobody on earth who will claim his position on earth. It will be immense when Mother earth will shake herself ready for My coming and great will be the disillusionment of the pagan nations who misjudged Me. To those in you nation who misjudge Me, displease Me and who are making Me sick with all your abominations, I want to say: "To you I am also a Saviour, but if you do not convert yourselves from your sins and return to My Father Arms, it will be a time that you will never forget – when I come to settle up with the godless. If you love Me with the healthy self-love which I have bestowed on each one, then come to Me, so that I can purify you and so that you can be saved by Me on My great day, the Only and First, Perfect and Infinite, Who has everything in My power, and I can save who I want to save. And I can take away the life from he who does not please Me. Do not be vain speakers who are seeking other alternative methods to be saved, because I ALONE am the SAVIOUR.

Amen

Chapter 35

The gathering of Zion in Darkest Africa

You who are faithfully waiting on Me, you are like the first evening flower who is faithfully in flower for Me, her Maker, evening after evening. Therefore I am rightfully calling you My Zion-flower. And in great dangers you are going to shine your lovely leaves for Me. And bright like a star YOU, MY Zion-flower, will be a light for Me in the dim light which will reign on earth. There will be a severe darkness which will make any human heart cringe with shock. It will be a day of great anxiety, but in the darkness only one little light will shine and it will be at the southern point of Darkest Africa. How ironic, that the light will shine from the darkest continent. And from around the world the rest of My evening flower will come and together they will shine a bright light. And in darkness they will arrive to come and unite with you here in Africa and together you will serve and praise Me. Together your song of praise will rise, because YAH has done you a favour, because you carry Him in your hearts. If you want to be one of those who want to sing a song of praise while the earth is crying, you have to come and join My group quickly, so that you can be part of My Zion-flower's leaf also. Be joyous, because only I can make free and all power is in My hands.

Amen

Chapter 36

Nobody can survive without the bread that I give to you

The Bread that I give is not the bread of man. My bread is spiritual and maintains everything. Man, in his physical body on earth, unfortunately also needs the bread of the earth to be able to survive, otherwise he will be facing everlasting life (the life hereafter) due to a lack of food. Everybody who receives their food from Me, will live forever and do not need the bread of man to live. I even provide in a time of starvation and therefore it is not necessary to sow and reap in order to ensure your survival. Do not make a mistake – man still needs bread in order to live and in his earthly existence there is no such thing that others must work and you just receive. I have commanded Adam to work so that he can eat and he did. Plant nothing and you eat nothing. This is how it works. But with Me it works differently. I give the bread of life freely to those who need it and want it eagerly. I alone have worked for the bread of life and can therefore give it freely to those who desire it. It is a true blessing if you receive of the bread without doing any work to deserve it. Now there will be those who say: But did we not work on ourselves to be your workers? Did we not spread Your Word to others and crucified ourselves to become worthy of You? To you who are upset and inwardly cry this question out to Me, the following answer is applicable: There was a harvest to collect and too few servants available. The owner of the land then hired an additional bunch of people. After a lot of hard work the harvest was collected and everyone claimed their payment for their hard work. "Who is the man who worked the hardest to bring the harvest in?" the owner asked the workers. Everybody then simultaneously raised their hands and wanted the honour for the hard work. The owner then asked the workers. Who has provided you with food every day? Who has provided you with sickles to bring the harvest in? Who has rewarded you day after day with a place to stay, clothing, transport and so forth? Could you have worked without the power that you have received from the bread which I gave you to eat every day? The workers could not answer any of this and shyly they had to watch how the owner attributed all the honour for the hard work to himself, because they knew that their existence was dependant on him alone. In the same way I am also the owner of the harvest that has to be gathered and you, My dear servants, are the workers who are provided for by Me, the owner. Nobody can survive without the bread that I give you. Nobody can survive without the houses that I give you and nobody can survive without Me Who support you like this every day. Everything comes from My great hand and you must give Me all praise and honour, because I enable you to do the labour for Me. The power does not come from yourself. The power comes from Me. Therefore do not be so arrogant as to think that you alone can accomplish something, because you are only a human. I make the blood flow through your veins, I make your breathing occur smoothly and I give you the oxygen that you need to survive. I AM the oxygen that you need to keep on living in the life hereafter and I AM Life itself. He who wants to live, come to Me and I will give you everything that you need to labour for Me and bring the harvest in from the land.

Amen

Chapter 37

I am just what people want Me to be

My children sometimes think that they are left on their own by Me, their Elohim and Creator, but nothing is further from the truth than this. How can I leave you when your heart is the temple in which I live? Many people do not want Me there, but there still are those who want Me with them constantly. They want Me as a mountain stronghold and Shelter. And I am just what people want Me to be. I am a rock to those who want Me like this and a mountain stronghold in the day of calamity. But to those who want Me as shepherd I am a Shepherd. Then there are those who only want Me to be a tower of strength. Then I am one to him. To the others I must be a righteous, forgiving God. But to Me the best is when somebody wants Me as his everything. When someone wants Me with his whole heart and his soul and spirit. When his heart burns for Me and he gets a feeling of lack because he cannot walk arm-in-arm with Me. When he or she longs to look into My eyes and gives Me a kiss of love. He will one day give Me everything which he longed for on earth and I will reward him for his longing for Me. But be careful how you see Me, because I will appear to you precisely like that. An Almighty Elohim Who takes revenge, will also take revenge on you because you are not free of sin. You are inclined to imagine Me as a harsh and strict Father, but I am a Loving Father Who forgives and I want you to have the frankness to come to Me, so that We can become One. Many only want Me for the advantage that I can bring, but to them I want to say: You cannot just use Me. I am not here with you for use. Because then you throw Me away when you got your way. Do not be like this with Me, because I carry you day to day. All the praise and honour can be attributed to Me. Even to you who are now writing here I only want to say: Be worthy of Me through your life and I will make My home with you. Do not sleep when you must do your work for Me, because you could go into an everlasting sleep, which will be difficult to emerge from. I will show you when you can go and sleep and when not. Think about this and awaken.

Amen

Chapter 38

The mockers will be exterminated

In the days of Noah there were mockers who scorned Me all the time, day and night. They were rewarded with the everlasting death. Literally and figuratively they have died. Today there still are mockers who mock Me in all respects. The one blasphemous joke and saying after the other is uttered. The judgment over the earth in the time of Noah came in the form of rain and violent thunderstorms. Now My judgment will come over the earth in the form of fire. Fire will be the judgment of those who mock and they will also die physically and spiritually. Those seeking for Me will find Me and My fire will burn in their hearts, but not unto the everlasting death like the mockers – to everlasting life. And life I have in abundance. To be truthful – I am life itself. Everything depends on My life. In the time of Noah the mockers were still mocking while the first rains started to fall. They thought it was just loose showers and to their consternation the loose showers engulfed them and from the very old to the very young passed away in the flood. It will now be like again. The earth will spew out its lava, but to great enjoyment of the people they will continue in their carefree existence and suddenly it will be too late. They will cry and in their terror they will also want to come into My ark, but I will say: “Go away – I do not know you. When you had to get to know Me as your everlasting Saviour, you just wanted to mock. Turn to your mocker-friends for help.” But everybody who loves Me do not have to fear anything, because I am with you. Think about this seriously, before you mock Me again.

Your Saviour and Friend (if only you want to take My hand.)

Amen

Chapter 39

Description of the crucifixion

Think of Me day and night. Make Me part of your life. And I will come and purify you, so that you will stand pure before Me and you will be found unblemished. There is nobody who is pure in himself. It is only My blood that purifies. I have already said this in a previous message. But do you think about it? No, you read it like automats and it does not resonate inside you. Do you know what I have gone through on the cross? Let Me tell you a little more than what you already know. The day when I was captured, I was mocked continuously. They pounded My face with their fists and I was a sorry sight to see. As if it was not enough, they tried to stab My eyes out in order to see if I can create eyes for Myself, like for the blind whom I made to see. I stopped them with My power and the searing irons, which they wanted to use to burn out My eyes, burned them so that they could do nothing. They wanted to mutilate My ears also, in order to see if I can make Myself new ears too, like the man who was slashed by My Peter during My capture. I was knocked around continuously so that I staggered back and forth. Later I was so drunk that I could not distinguish up from down and I was kicked. Not one of My bones was broken, but you can think for yourself how I must have looked by that time. The people who served Me, could not look and everybody fled, except My Johannes, who stayed almost to the end. My earthly mother, Maria, followed Me, crying, while she knew that all power belonged to Me and that I would not save Myself from the cross. I could if I wanted to, but for your sake, who are reading here now, and for others, I continued to the bitter end. At the cross the thick nails were repeatedly driven into My hands. As soon as it was in, it was taken out again and driven back into My hands again in order to inflict as much pain as possible. I was not a pretty sight to see and after the scouring I was one bloody mass. I literally bled to death. Like the Passover lamb had to bleed to death, I bled on the cross for you. As far as I had walked with the heavy burden of the cross on My shoulders, a trail of blood stayed behind in the street. When My Simon of Cerene came to lift My cross, I was so exhausted that I could have died of exhaustion. But I carried on until the bitter end. The blind, deaf, mute, in short, everyone whom I have healed, gathered there, but they could not come closer. They were kept at a distance by My crucifiers and the people who hated Me. I continued without thinking twice. And this is My love for you. With My crucifixion many other, deeper things happened which you cannot bear yet, but later I will make everything known to you. A certain period must still pass before you will be ripe for it spiritually. Man is not so far advanced in spirit as what he thinks to understand. You must not worry yourselves about this. I will take care that you will be able to bear it and have grown enough spiritually to be able to understand these things in the same way that I take care that the plants outside grow. But you must be right, otherwise I can do absolutely nothing for you, because I am a God that respects free will. Stay in Me and you will grow.

Chapter 40

Seek My kingdom which is inside yourselves

The people who lived in the eighteenth century were banished from church under a false impression of Me, their Father. Everybody before that time still kept Me in mind to a certain degree, but later people just used Me for their own benefit. In My name so-called devils were driven out and many people suffered losses because they were labelled as living devils. Many were burned on the stake because of Me. They were mutilated and murdered in brutal ways. The so-called church people were responsible for this. Nowhere did I give command that people must be murdered. It was the obstinate decision of the Roman Catholic church themselves. They have never loved Me and from the beginning they were anti-christ. The spirit of the antichrist reigns in that church. Here and there I find someone who professes Me and still seeks Me with an honest, sincere heart. But I take them out and bring them to the rest of My sheep. The others choose to be ruled by the lie and they do not want to hear about anything better. But they must stay where they are, because I do not force anybody who does not want to, to come to Me. The churches today are money-making organisations and in their desire for money they have lost Me long ago. No church can claim to have Me in their midst, because the sign thereof is the lust for money. My kingdom is not from here and therefore I will never ask money. I am also not interested in earthly possessions and will therefore never ask for donations. Look for My kingdom inside yourselves and you will find a treasure that is worth a lot more than money. It is the kingdom of El (God) which will be unveiled therein, because I am concealed in your hearts. But I am also not concealed, because you will find Me in every tree and flower. Just search in the right place. Knock, and it will be opened unto you. Seek and you will find. It is one of My rules which must be followed for the best results. Nobody finds something valuable if it was not first his intention to seek it. You will find Me in the depth of your heart and I will open the door for you. Just look hard enough.

Amen

Chapter 41

I am the steersman Who steers every boat

It is wrong to say that all paths lead to death. I am an Almighty El and can do as I want. There is nobody who can stop Me in My Power and will. If there is someone who wants to change his path, he can come in love and humility to Me and I will help him to change course. I am the Steersman Who steers every boat and I will lead the boat to safety against My coastline. If there is something in life that bothers you and you do not know how to change it, you only have to come to Me and I will change your fate, so that you will be happy in your doings. But your life must be pleasing to Me. I will not ease your path of earthly sin. I will not share the filth in a human's life. What you ask, must be serious and honest. No negative requests will be answered. I will not listen if you ask Me to harm your fellow-man. It must be an honest, unselfish request, because I am pure and do not participate with the impure. When someone comes in sincerity and asks Me like this, I will change everything so that he can be satisfied with it. I want to be recognized in everything. I want to be loved in good and bad times and therefore I bring bad times as a test to man. But those who love Me will stand the test and I will make them happy – even if it perhaps is only in the life hereafter. Do not fear or doubt, because I am always there and who knows if I will not change your grief into joy if you continuously come and ask Me in fervid love. With Me everything is possible – even the awakening from death. Just think of Me always and do not be worried about tomorrow, because I have already conquered tomorrow. And you My dear writing-servant, I know what your troubles are. Do not be afraid, because everything will work out well. Just trust in Me and do not fear, because I am with you every day, with every step that you take. Give your sorrows to Me, so that I can carry it and you will rejoice in stead of tremble. All My love to all My servants. Your Father JAHWEH, Who loves you very much, brings these messages to you. Do not think that this Word is coming from a human, because a human's words have no power. Take notice of your heart and you will feel how I speak to you without stop and soft like the rain, but loud like a thunderbolt.

Amen

Chapter 42

Do not fear the night of the long knives

Without stop you must carry on praying, because if you knew what awaits your nation, you will not laugh anymore, but cry. It will be terrible when I unleash the barbarians of Africa to take revenge on those who do not profess Me. Yes, it is a time of purification for your nation and with the setting sun there will be many who will not awaken the next morning. It will be a terrible night of death and in fear millions will flee before the barbarians and without rescue everyone will be who do not carry Me in their hearts. Therefore be mindful of Me, so that I can rescue you in a night of death and do not fear, because fear makes death come near and then you cannot pray to Me and I cannot answer you prayers which have never risen before Me. Therefore think of Me day and night and rejoice in Me, your faithful Saviour and Friend Who will break open a way for My children in the greatest anguish, and bring you to safety. Sing a new song to Me, because I will make you happy, but those who do not wait on Me, for them a night of death is approaching. A night of terror and death like there has never been on this earth. Think of the barbaric people around you and you will have to agree that you do not have a chance without Me. They will outnumber you by far and you will have to see how they storm you with menace. But in My arms I will faithfully keep those who call on Me and who love Me. Do not think that you can call on Me in a time of need without knowing Me beforehand. It will not help and I will only say: "I do not know you!" Therefore, be warned – the day of judgment is coming closer. Faithfully, Mine must come to gather around Me. Therefore I awaken everyone so that you can come and gather around Me, because I love you and do not want anyone to go astray and I call you to My Father Chest where I want to hold you tight while the winds blow outside and the barbaric crowds wave their assegais. "Come to Me!" I call again so that I can take care of you and bring you to safety, where you will sing for Me and do not be concerned about the pillar, because it is there, just like I am there and you don't see Me, but still it is there. Together you will gather at the pillar, just like I will gather you at My feet. It will be a day of unusual joy, because you will be able to see Me and in your midst I will walk. Like a brother walking among you, so I will be with you and you will rejoice. But, and it is a Great But, you must voluntarily and now turn to Me and take refuge with Me and nobody coming to stand in My circle will even know of the imminent danger, because I will keep you busy with songs of praise in your hearts. Yes, great will be the world's grief in the face of death and they will be sorry that they did not take notice of My warnings and invitation. Do not fear the night of the long knives. I am already ready with My whole Angelic Host and like Warriors We wait to take revenge on your oppressors who want to take vengeance on you. It will be a clash which they will never forget and those who survive will talk about the Great Spirit of Terror for generations to come and will never forget it, and out of respect for Me, never again will they lift a hand against you to harm you. This I, The Almighty El of heaven and earth says, and nobody will change My Words or spit it out when I have given it to them.

Amen

Chapter 43

On the other side (after death) there are many homes which I have prepared for you

Do not be concerned about the day of tomorrow. The worldly people seek to fill their pockets and purses before they have to die one day and come and stand before Me, deep in debt. Then what will they find on the other side? A rich-man's land with treasures without end or limit? No, dumb with amazement they will look at this poor neighbourhood full of shacks and in great distress they will be shown a shack where they will have to stay for the rest of their lives. There will be no more luxuries. All pomp and ceremony will disappear and poor in spirit they will stand before Me. They were rich in earthly goods, but poor they will go into My kingdom because they did not gather treasures in heaven – like I have said during My stay on earth that you must do. In poverty they will have to look at the pomp and ceremony which I will give to Mine and they will grind their teeth in sorrow, that they had failed to appreciate My words when they had the chance on earth. There is redemption for those, but it will be tough before they will be able to take the burden of wealth from their shoulders. It will be a time of trial which must purify them and only then will they be able to proceed to a better place for further purification. On the other side (after death) there are many homes which I have prepared for you. Test it with the scriptures which I have discussed with My disciples before My crucifixion and you will see that it is true and not a lie. I have gone ahead to prepare a place for you and I did. For each one there is a place where he will fit in. Kind seeks its kind – this is valid with Me and you will be together with others who will be bunched together in a “cage” just like you. Those of you who have read some of the works of My previous writers will know precisely what I am talking about now, but to those of you who stubbornly refuse to look facts into the face and who do not want to read what I had already previously dictated to My servants in the same way that I am now doing with My writer-servant, I will tell it once again. There are many areas in My kingdom in the life hereafter. If you were an imperious king, then you will end up with other imperious kings in an area where you will argue and fight all the time over reigning. Sometimes unto death whereupon I will have to resurrect you once again. Now you will say: How can there be another death after the earthly death? I will tell you: It is the spiritual death. Now we get to another place in My kingdom. The people in this place are those who wanted to surpass each other in everything on earth. They are now equipped with something which they must develop into something great but the more they look at each others doings, the more they try to surpass each other and the less they get something right. The one wants to make a bigger mess than the other. Until they become so tired of this that they look for something better en only then I will send My messengers to invite them to find something better (Me). If they concede to go with My messenger, they are brought to a better place where they must work on themselves until they are purified again and then they can proceed to go and seek Me, their Creator until they find Me. It can take years and years before they find Me and this also in circumstances that really is not nice. What I really want to say to you here is that you have a chance on earth to seek Me and to find Me, because I am not far from you. I am closer than you think and just a thought of Me will immediately lure Me to you to be with you in Spirit. Therefore think about Me all the time, because then I am closest to you. I am aware of you all the time, but keep a distance which you have to make smaller through fiery prayers to Me. Do not think that I am so far removed from you, because then you are making a big mistake. I can only get as close to you as you want to allow Me to be, because your will is free and I do not force anyone. There is a place which is removed far from Me and it is called hell. There I am not to be found, but repeatedly I send My messengers there to look if there is not someone who wants to improve himself. Then he is brought to a better place where he must start his search for Me. He is assisted by My angels who will give him a specific task to do. If he does not do this, he will once again go back to where he came from. If he concedes to do it, he will have to undergo processes to improve himself and to purify himself. Such a person is then also on his way back to Me, his Creator and Saviour. But he will never be able to become a fully-fledged child of God, because he has abominably blown his chances on earth, but can reach a measure of bliss. Therefore I say that you must seek Me on earth, because one day on the earth's surface in the body of a human is worth a lot more than a hundred years in the life hereafter, if you have not reached Me. There you must work three, four of five times as hard as here on earth and you reach almost nothing in comparison with that which you can gather here. Gather treasures where no moth or rust can destroy it. I am a merciful Father who will never hold the transgressions against you always and forever and therefore I give you chances again and again which you have to embrace in order to develop and to gather. It is Spiritual goods of which We talk now, that must be gathered. Give all earthly cares to Me and you only work on your soul and strive to unity with Me and then you will not have to work so hard on yourself in the kingdom hereafter. By giving your sorrows to Me, it makes you free to do charity work to others. Help where you can and I will take all your burdens upon Me. Do not gather treasures for yourself which will go to waste anyway. The spiritual treasures are of immeasurable value to you in the life hereafter and it will determine whether you will walk in light or in darkness, because there the light is that which you have gathered. If you gather darkness for yourself on earth, it is only you who are to be blamed if you have to sit for very long periods engulfed by darkness. I am the Light, therefore you must do what I say, so that I can come and stay with you and you will have My light in the life hereafter. Strive to Me and My kingdom and all the rest will be given to you. It is only a decision of the will which you have to make and you will have light or darkness. The light can be increased for you on the other side if you seek Me there or you can cause greater darkness for yourself by turning your back on Me. The more you love Me, the bigger your light is, until you later become one with Me to be a light yourself. Be warned while you still have a chance for easy improvement, because there it is much more difficult to improve yourself and get closer to Me.

Amen

Chapter 44

Unprecedented joy for the Boer-nation of South Africa

If you would know what I have prepared for you, you will sing and dance simultaneously. Then you will cast your earthly cares and burdens from your shoulders and without any resistance you will accept everything coming your way. I have prepared unending joy for you who love Me. But I cannot tell you now what you can expect in My kingdom hereafter because you are not yet strong enough to carry it. You do not believe Me when I say it and you doubt My Word, but you will each get a taste of this while you are still here on earth. It will serve as motivation for you to only then give yourself unconditionally to Me. I will give each one a joy in the heart that nobody can describe who does not have it. Therefore be full of My praise and ask for My presence in you life day and night and I will give your heart such joy that there will be no end to it. Only then will you believe what I say. It is not far in the distance anymore and you will be sorry that you could have doubted My words – when you see Me walking among you like a brother, My Zion. I have said that I will gather you and I will do it and you will all be together as brothers, while you will praise Me and all the poems of praise that I give to My writer-servants, you will sing. And this time you will bring Me a worthy offering, because it will come from your hearts and will not be pretended or false. It will be a time of unprecedented bloom at the Southern point of Africa – when I shall gather all My people from across the world and you will be like a beautiful flower which comes from My heavenly garden. No spirit of lies or deceit will reign here, because I am among you and I will purify you. But after this the antichrist will come and he will attempt to destroy My flower, but he will not succeed. It will be the great religious strife of which Bertha Dudde has spoken, which I had dictated to her in the same way like I am now dictating to Louise Snyder. Give attention to this, because you must always carry Me in your hearts so that you can receive strength in that time that will come. It will be an unusually fierce struggle, but those who love Me will indeed have nothing to worry about, not so?! Come to Me with all your burdens and will carry it for you and you will rejoice like calves out of their shed and with joy you will see My second coming in the clouds. You will run to meet Me and I will grab all of you and embrace you against My Chest like a father his little boy or girl and you will be with Me forever. This is said to you, the Boer nation of South Africa, with all My love.

Amen

Chapter 45

A cloud of protection offered to us

It was in the third century after My birth as a human on earth that the following incident took place. There was a man called Markus, he was from Cirene. He was a man with a reasonable education about Me, but without the true, real, burning love for Me. There are still people like this on earth. They were taught about Me by their parents, but that is where it ended. No burning desire for Me. But back to Markus. He was on his way to trade one of his stud cattle for calves of another cattle race. He farmed intensely with cattle as far as it was possible in those times. He was a farmer in his heart and farming was his occupation, just like some in your country today. Markus was still a long way from his destination when a terrible, dangerous weather formed and very threatening thunderbolts struck close to him. The bull was struck fatally and it fell right there in the road where it laid still. Nearby there was a cave, in view from the road and bewildered and severely shocked he went to take shelter in it, just to find out that a terrifying bear had the same plan. With a great commotion Markus left the cave again just to find himself in the deadly thunderstorm. There was no other escape for him. He ran in a direction in the hope of finding shelter somewhere. But nowhere could he find shelter or safety. Markus was brought onto his knees by the last spark of hope that was still left inside him and he remembered of the God of Whom his parent taught him. Markus was aware of My existence, but in his diligence in his daily work he did not give much attention to his faith. In his despair he called on Me and did not think that I would in any way take notice of him. But Markus did not know The Only, Everlasting and Ungraspable Elohim (God) of which his parents have taught him, although he did believe in My existence. And I am a true Elohim, an Elohim Who does not disappoint, even if I just find a tiny spark of faith in the caller of My Name. I answered his prayer and sent My angel with a protective cloud which was wrapped around Markus. Markus immediately saw the protective cloud around him and immediately knew that it was the work of God, of Whom his parents have taught him. Suddenly he got a faith in Me that would never weaken again and he walked further in the heavy weather, safely sheltered against the onslaught of the heavy weather which came down more fiercely upon him. But he just looked at the storm and not a drop fell on him. The wind did not even move his hair, because My protective Hand was around him. Safely he reached his destiny, to the great amazement of the people who were expecting him. Greater was their amazement when they saw that there was not even a wet spot on his clothes. Markus' testimony has brought many people to My feet on that night and for Me is was a fruitful Godly occurrence. Markus returned home the next day and he told everyone who stormed to him in great amazement after they had thought that he had perished in the great storm, because houses were blown over and several trees were uprooted by the great storm. This is the truth and you will be able to ask him yourself if you turn to Me and ask Me for protection against evil. Today there are terrible onslaughts of evil which is launched against you and you are totally unaware of this, because My protective cloud is also around you, if you would ask Me for it. Even in a heart where I detect a little faith in Me, I will answer the prayer so that he/she can see how faithful I am and it will serve as encouragement to develop a greater faith. Unfortunately people forget about Me the moment it is going better around them and then they do not ask My protection anymore and then they wonder why it is now going so bad again. It is a weakness of Man and just like the good weather friend they want to cling to Me only when I am needed. The storm has served the purpose of a great growth in faith in Markus and after this he never placed Me after his earthly farming. Therefore take care that you will also stay in Me like Markus and I shall never let go of you. But do not cry if you once again forget Me somewhere along the road and I do not rush to your aid immediately when you need Me. Pray without stop, so that your faith can be strengthened through this and that you can depart this life as true children of Mine.

Amen

Chapter 46

Seek Me with a pure heart and with complete faith and trust in Me and I will also answer your prayer

Forty seven years after the Great Trek in your country there was a man called Sarel Winterbach. He was also a man with a reasonable knowledge of Me with experience that he has gained during the Trek from the great Cape. Together with many other Voortrekkers he went into the land to escape the oppressing yoke and he came to seek his freedom in the untouched land of the interior. Sarel was bitten by a snake, 47 years after the trek, and he thought that he had to say farewell to his people and that everything was lost for him. He started to hallucinate due to the strong snake poison and many of his organs were on the brink of collapsing. His little daughter of ten years stood by his bed with tears in her little eyes, because she knew that she would miss him a lot if he had to go. In her little heart she then sent the following moving prayer to Me: "Dear Jesus, tender and pure. I come to ask You for my daddy's life. Please do not take him away from me, because I will miss him very much. Amen." I, the Saviour of everyone who asks

Me for it, was filled with deep love for this small little child and I could not leave her prayer unanswered. That night Sarel, her dad, went through very deep waters which his soul had to go through, but I could not take him away, because I did not want to hurt My little daughter. Needless to say, I did not take him away from her and I healed him, so that he was left only with slight problems which did not harm him. It just served as a reminder to an answered prayer of a little child who came with complete faith to Me. She was sent by one of My angels to save her dad's life and he knows that it was the pure, unadorned prayer of a child that had saved him. Therefore I say again, Seek Me with a pure heart and complete faith and trust in Me and I will also answer your prayer, just like My little daughter's prayer.

Amen

Chapter 47

The "self"

In the days since Noah there has never been such a corrupt time like now.

Noah and them were the only ones in a land chock-full of people with idolatry principles and the one did not grant the other anything. People murdered each other for a few pennies. Think a little bit of the time in which you live now. Is it not going the same way? Is it not exactly the same? Neighbour against neighbour, brother against brother you are. The one cannot look at the other, then he is dragged to court. The norm of today is the theme "I." The "I"-theme is used to do everything. "I" want a bigger house. "I" am not satisfied with the salary that "I" receive. "My" qualifications are the best, therefore "I" have to be appointed.

Should someone else try to stand in your light, he is knocked away in a heartless manner, without consideration for his person or needs. "I" also make "nothing" out of my business and therefore it is expanded into something bigger. Is there someone who is satisfied with life like I am giving it to him? Who is the man who thanks Me for every piece of bread that I give to him? There are those among your compatriots who are thankful for what I give to him. However, he will also grab an opportunity which comes his way to improve his lifestyle. There is nothing wrong with wanting to have earthly possessions, providing that you use it good and well for improving life for your fellow-man. Who gives his extra vehicle to someone who is stuck without a vehicle? Do you not think about it that I will repay you for the good deed to another? What will it harm you if you help someone who has less than you? It will indeed only make you a better person who, filled with MY SPIRIT, enters into everlasting life and receives his wage there. Do not expect anything from the world, because the world will give nothing – it only takes and is not satisfied before it has your whole soul. There are times in a human's life where you have to choose – to benefit yourself or another. Do not think that by practising self-denial, you are now already ready for everlasting life. Examine yourself and see with what attitude you have denied yourself. Are you unhappy about that which you have given away? Then you are not right yet, because I want givers who want to give. Not irritable, moody people because they had to give something to someone less-privileged. Do not think in your heart that they can make a plan themselves, because they were brought on your path to better yourself, but you can also worsen if you do not heed yourself. That which you give away will be given back to you, even if it is only in the life hereafter. You do not have an idea of what your wage is just because you have done a small favour for someone who needed it. What you do not realise, is that possibly one of My messengers or angels was sent and came to visit you in the form of a needy person. And what will you then do if you realise that you have just sent away an angel with empty hands? Where will you go and look for him to make right everything that you have made a mess of? Can you find Me behind every bush to make right that which you, in the first place, did not want to do because of selfishness? The "self" sometimes blinds man so, that he cannot realise who is standing before him and shamefully he would have to hang his head when I say the following well-known words to him: I was with you and you did not feed or clothe Me. I have asked you for water and you did not want to give Me anything. Therefore you have to think about yourselves – but not in the way that the worldling thinks about himself. Think how insignificant the earthly life and existence is. Think how I can destroy it in an instant if I wanted to. Think about it that the physical life with its little pleasures does not last forever and that you have to give account of every deed that you have done on earth. This is the way in which you must think of yourself and do not foster any idle thoughts. Then you will be able to come freely to Me. And I will reward you for all your good deeds. You can be assured of this, because the one and only "I AM" has said it to you. And I say it to you in all love.

Amen

Chapter 48

Always wait on MY answer in your heart

Sometimes man is very uncertain regarding his doings. He does not know exactly what he must do and then he sometimes makes big mistakes which later causes him to grieve bitterly. In trouble he then gets the idea to ask ME for a solution, but without waiting on MY answer he then merely makes a decision by himself. Then I was not acknowledged in his doings and what I want is that someone must wait in the silence of his heart on MY answer. I will answer him at the time which I regard as right and nobody can force ME to give an answer faster than I regard as necessary. All of you sometimes ask ME for things and then merely want it immediately, but I know when it is most necessary. Sometimes it is good to seek MY presence continuously for a particular solution and sometimes I give it to you immediately after just one prayer. I know why I do it and you must not question MY decisions because I, as Creator and Judge of everything will cause everything to work out in the way that I regard as the best. Be assured that I do hear your prayer, but will only answer a bit later, if it is necessary. If it is urgent, and I know when it is urgent, I will answer you immediately. Take the pillar as example. I know why it was not found the first time. I know why I keep the pillar closed to your eyes and you must let the matter rest there – that I will show the pillar to you at the right time. You do not know what is going on in the world around you, but I know, and therefore I will also answer your prayers regarding the pillar at the right time. And you will praise ME, because MY decisions are wondrous and you will not believe that you did not find the pillar with the first search. Things will then be made clear to you. Do not fear the evil ones, because they can do nothing to you if you come and take shelter with ME. These are MY words which will never perish. Take shelter under the wings of MY words, so that I can cover you with MY love and peace and nobody – I repeat – nobody will be able to cause you harm. My words are for sure and certain and never go by without you seeing it and you will be able to give witness to it. It is MY words.

Amen

Chapter 49

I love everyone as My children and desire each heart, which must be dedicated to Me

There has never been a time like now on earth. Things started to go wrong in your country the day when you forgot ME, your Saviour and Creator and started to follow other priests. In stead of seeking ME with a burning longing, you withheld the longing and placed your trust in people to find ME for you. Each one is responsible for his own soul's salvation and nobody can come and hide behind someone else on the day when he has to come and stand before ME. No preacher can stand in for you. You must seek ME yourself and I assure you, you WILL find ME, because I am not far. I am not in another country, so that you have to pay money to come and look for ME there. I am in the quiet closeness of EVERYONE'S heart. Do not let anybody tell you that I am only with certain ones. I do not have any favourites. I love everybody as MY children and desire each heart which must belong to ME, dedicated to ME. If each one of you seek ME, like MY writers did, I would have talked to you also, since long ago, and many a time I wanted to speak to each one of you reading here now, but you did not allow ME. Therefore do not think that MY writing-servants are special, elevated above you, because I know each one's heart and they are just as full of sin as you are. The only difference is that they sought ME deeper than you and therefore they have opened a way for ME in their hearts to bring you messages from The Only Saviour who loved you enough to die for you. Also do not think that you are lost because you have not yet heard MY voice inside you, because it is a lie of Satan which he wants to use so that you should lose courage. It is ME Who is talking to you.

Those of you who still do not believe, also will not believe, even If I would come in person to you and it will not be a very nice experience for you who do not believe, when I come in full glory and power to you and expose all your weaknesses before all the people. Therefore, rather be quick to listen what I, The Almighty, The Wise, says to you and you will be saved. Those of you who like to hear your own voices; to you I want to say: Beware the day when I let you speak before an audience of thousands to expose all your foolishness and there you will be the fool, and everybody will laugh at you. Verily, for you it will be a day of shame. Therefore I warn once again, rather be still and conceal your foolishness, so that nobody will know it and I, if I am asked, will change your heart, so that you will also be able to find MY wisdom inside yourself, which will be given to you first hand from ME, without the tiring Bible study. It is much better than the exhausting study of the holy scriptures because you will not be open to wrong doctrines which can be exposed everywhere in the Bible, because then it comes directly from ME, The Creator of the Word, because I AM the Word and who can say anything against ME? Is there someone who would like to argue with ME? Is there someone who would like to speak so that I must keep quiet? Is there perhaps still someone who would like to use MY Words in Scripture for his own agendas and through this wanting to keep ME encapsulated in MY own Words? Think about it that I am Almighty and that I can make and break like I want to. I can make or break the Words that I have spoken over someone. Nothing, and I repeat, NOTHING can command or order ME. If I have decided something, nobody can make ME decide differently because he wants it so. What can make ME change MY decision is the true, humble Love in a heart who comes and asks ME out of deep love and out of love I will let MY plans go. Those of you who would now again draw the text verses closer of how unchangeable I am, I just want to remind you of the city Nineveh which would have been destroyed, if the people in it did not come and seek ME in love and repentance. It was one of MY plans which I have changed, for the sake of a nation who have started to seek ME. Should I wipe out a whole city full of people just to prove that I am unchangeable? No, I am Love. Soft, tender love and I show mercy in MY great Love to whomever I want and there is nothing that anybody can do about it. If I want to pour out MY Spirit over someone, I do it and not a finger will be pointed at ME, because I know what I do. I love all MY children equally, but if one seeks ME deeper than the other, I am automatically closer to him than to the others who do not desire ME so deeply. This is how it is and the sooner you realise this, the better for your soul's salvation, and even for the one who is standing next to you and who always has to listen to your smartness, because only then you will start to speak true Wisdom in stead of the foolish remarks which you make day after day. I forgive everything if someone comes to ME in deep remorse. Then I will wash him clean through MY blood and you will know when I have come to knock on your door, because your heart will detect a renewal and you will rejoice and be jubilant in ME. Only then a new life will start to flow inside you and you will not be able to believe that you were once so impure, while you thought that you were pure. And it applies to everyone, also to MY writing-servant who is writing here. Do not think that MY writers are standing on the sideline, judging you, because they do not have judgment in their hands, but MY Words, which I will only bring to you through them, will judge you. Therefore be warned, because there is little time, and MY group of chosen ones is also little. I want you to be part of MY chosen little group, because I love you and know that you are sincere in your foolishness. These are MY words to you, who are part of MY chosen group of people. It is said to you with all the love in MY Father Heart. Take notice of the sign which I will give to you as confirmation that these are MY Words and not those of a human.

These are true words, and certain.

The Great I AM, is the ONE who speaks and you will detect a renewal inside you and you will become a worthy servant for ME, MY modern Paul. Go and be blessed in MY Everlasting Name.

Amen

Chapter 50

Come to Me, I want to invite you once again and tell you to come and take shelter with ME, because there is little time.

Do not fear the people who can do nothing to you, but fear ME who can bring you into ruin, or save you. These are well known words to all of you and hopefully I do not have to say it again, because it has become time that you keep My Words inside you, without Me having to always remind you again. The end times of which it is spoken in Revelations is in sight and you do not yet have enough power to endure it, because you do not come to get power from ME and still you think that the power comes from yourself. Ponder a little over My last words and you will see it in yourself as the truth. Come to Me, I want to invite you once again and tell you to come and take shelter with Me, because there is little time and each day will become a little more difficult. Take care that the burden does not become too heavy for you and that you perish along the way, because it will be bitter and the dogs and jackals will descend upon you and consume each bit of flesh on you. But if you carry My burden (and it is love) you will never perish along the way, because I lighten your burden and shorten the path. Come and give all your burdens to ME and I will carry it for you and at the same time also solve all your problems. Of all your problems not one jot or tittle will be left and light with joy you will walk your path for ME. All of this can only be reached through the love for ME, Who only want to redeem you and save you and help you where you allow ME to. I am not an unforgiving God and I will take all your cares on ME, because I have carried all your sin the day when I took the cursed tree and walked with it to Golgotha.

It was an unusual suffering that nobody besides ME would have been able to carry and therefore I have volunteered to do it, for the sake of all MY children whom I loved so much and still do after all the sin they did. Can you hate your child because he was disobedient to you? Can a father watch how his child is led astray without helping him? No, you cannot and so much the more I could also not look on and see how the old snake, who is also called Satan, led MY children astray. Therefore I became human and came to walk among MY children so that I could teach them the right ways which were so distorted by the temple servants. And now I come to you again, in the form of revelations, to again show you the right way which has become so crooked due to the wrong doctrines coming from the Bible, which was translated so wrongly through the influence of satan. Now you ask: How can You allow Your word to be tampered with? I am an Everlasting GOD Who does not allow MY words to be distorted, but I gave the translators their freedom, so that those who really seek ME, will find ME; even if it is in a distorted doctrine. He who seeks ME, finds ME and then I will reveal MYSELF to him, it does not matter who he is. You will see it and rejoice about it when you realise that I came to fetch you in a twisted world with wrong conceptions about ME, because I give the untwisted truth. I give the pure nourishment to MY children who seek ME and who have found ME. No untruth about ME will reign in their hearts anymore, because I, THE GREAT I AM, will make everything clear to you and you will see the sun shine inside you and great will be your joy. Then, in MY Father Heart, there will be no more grief when MY child turns to ME and I will grab him with all MY love and embrace him tight against MY chest, because MY love for you is unfeigned. But I also desire unfeigned love for ME, and in this way I make you pure. Always think of MY words and ask that I come and cleanse you inside, so that I will find a pleasing and pure temple for ME there.

Amen. Yes, amen. Yes look. I am coming soon, and everybody will see that I am the ONE Who makes and breaks.
